Chapter 1

Starting at Marco's Bistro in Liberty City 1986, Forelli Family Don, Sonny Forelli, his right hand man, and a random Forelli member discuss Tommy Vercetti's release from prison. He used to be arrested for killing eleven men during a botched hit, serving fifteen years in jail in which the sentence started in 1971. The Forelli Family is having a meeting about their business expansion down to Vice City, so they send Tommy Vercetti to help the expansion. This is because the gang wants to expand their influence into Vice City to become bigger.

Sonny Forelli says, "Tommy Vercetti... Huh! Shit. Didn't think they'd ever let him out."

Forelli Capo says, "He kept his head down, helps people forget."

Sonny says, "People will remember soon enough, when they see him walking down the streets of their neighborhoods. It will be bad for business."

A Forelli member says, "Well, what are we gonna do Sonny?"

Sonny formally says, "We will treat him like an old friend and keep him busy out of town. OK? We been talking about expanding down South, right? Vice City is twenty-four carat gold these days. The Colombians, the Mexicans, hell, even those Cuban refugees are cutting themselves a piece of some nice action."

Forelli Capo says, "But it's all drugs, Sonny. None of the families will touch that shit!"

Sonny says, "Times are changing. The families can't keep their backs turned while their enemies reap the rewards. So, we send some one down to do the dirty work for us... and cut ourselves a nice quiet slice, OK? Who's our contact down there?"

Gener Guzman

Forelli member says, “Ken Rosenberg, schmuck of a lawyer. How's he gonna hold Vercetti's leash?”

Sonny says, “We don't need him to. We just set him loose in Vice City, we give him a little cash for getting started, OK? Give it a few months. Then we go down and pay him a little visit right? See how he's doing.”

After the arrival to Vice City, Tommy Vercetti, Ken Rosenberg (A lawyer who serves as the Forelli contact in Vice City), and mobsters named Harry and Lee meet. Ken says, “Hey, hey! guys... It's Ken Rosenberg, here! Heh, heh, hey, great. Hey, well I am gonna drive you guys to the meet, OK? Now, I have talked to the suppliers and they are very, uh, keen to start a business relationship. So, if it goes well we should be doing very nicely for ourselves, which is, y'know, good. Okay, so. They're brothers okay. One of them operates the, uh, business, and the other one does the flying...” They all get inside Ken's Admiral, and Ken drives to the drug deal with the Vance crime family in Viceport. The Vances arrive at the deal by helicopter. “OK, that's them in the chopper. Alright, here's the deal. They want a straight exchange on open ground, alright? OK, stay tight. Let's go.” says Ken. Ken stays in his car while Tommy, Jarry, and Lee completes the deal. One of the dealers exits the helicopter and heads towards the group carrying two briefcases. Some men are carrying weapons wearing black clothes, hiding behind the crates in a nearby warehouse preparing to ambush the deal and kill the enemies in the process..

Tommy says, “Got it?”

One of the dealers says, “100% pure Grade-A Colombian, my friend.”

Tommy says, “Let me see it”.

The dealer says, “The greens”.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Tommy says, "Tens and twenties - used."

Harry and Lee show their money to the dealer.

The dealer says, "I think we have a deal, my friend, ha ha ha ha ha!"

The gunmen ambush the deal by surprising gunfire at the men. Harry, Lee, and one of the dealers are killed. "Oh shit!" says Tommy. Tommy jumps inside the window of Ken's Admiral.

Tommy says, "Go on, get out of here! Drive!"

Ken's car escapes the ambush while the helicopter flies away. Ken and Tommy are driven to Ken's Office located in Washington Beach, Vice Beach which is located on the east side.

Before arriving at the office, Ken says, "I poke my head out of the gutter for one freakin' second and fate shovels shit in my face!"

Tommy says, "Go get some sleep."

Ken says, "What are you gonna do?"

Tommy says, "I'll drop by your office tomorrow and we can start sorting this mess out."

Ken runs to his office while Tommy takes Ken's Admiral. Tommy drives to the Ocean View Hotel in Ocean Beach. He listens to Flash FM and is warned that all bridges in Vice City are closed due to the predicted hurricane storm striking soon. Shortly, he arrives at the hotel and checks in. He skips dinner and heads to his room. He starts a phone call with Sonny Forelli.

Tommy says, "Hello sonny."

Sonny says, "Tommy! Tommy. It's been too long. (Tommy sighs on the other end of the phone) I know, I know. You're just overwhelmed with emotion. Fifteen years - seems like only yesterday."

Tommy says, "I guess that's a perspective thing."

Gener Guzman

Sonny says, "Hey, doing time for the family is no piece of cake, but the family looks after its own, OK? So, how'd the deal go down - you sitting on some white gold?"

Tommy says, "Look, Sonny, we were set up. The deal was an ambush. Harry and Lee are dead."

Sonny says, "You better be kidding me, Tommy. Tell me you still got the money."

Tommy says, "No Sonny, I don't have the money."

Sonny shouts, "That was my money Tommy, MY MONEY! (Sonny slams the phone down on the table before picking it up again) You better not be screwing me, Tommy because you know I'm not a man to be screwed with!"

Tommy says, "Wait Sonny. You have my personal assurance that I'm gonna get you your money back and the drugs. And I'm gonna mail you the dicks of those responsible."

Sonny says, "Hey. I already know that. You're not a fool Tommy, but I warn you, neither am I. If it was anybody else you'd be DEAD already. But because it's you, because we got history, I'm gonna let you handle this."

Tommy says, "Look, Sonny, you got my word."

Sonny says, "I'll be in touch."

Sonny hangs up his phone while Tommy angrily slams his phone to the floor.

Tommy goes to sleep and wakes up at 7:30. He gets ready to go and is in the lobby by 8:00. He exits the hotel, goes to his car and drives to Ken Rosenberg's office in order to start his second day in Vice City. He comes inside the office and meets for the job instructions.

Ken says, "Go get some sleep, - he says - I have been sitting in this chair all night with the lights off drinking coffee. This is a disaster. We are so screwed, man! These gorillas, listen to me, are gonna come down here and rip my head off. It's ridiculous! I did NOT go to law school for this! OK, now what the hell you gonna do?"

Tommy says, "Shut up, sit down and relax. I'll tell you what we gonna do. You're gonna find out who took our cocaine - and then, I'm gonna kill them."

Ken says, "That's a good idea, that's a GREAT idea. Let me think, let me think, let me think. - OH! There's this retired colonel, Colonel Juan Garcia Cortez. He's the one that helped me set up this deal well away from Vice City's established thugs. OK? Now, listen. He's holding his party out in the bay on his expensive yacht and all of Vice City's big players are gonna be there. OK? I have an invite, of course I have an invite, but there's no that I am going out there sticking my head out the door - No way, not gonna happen."

Ken gives Tommy the invitation card.

Tommy says, "I told you, shut up! I'll go myself..."

Ken says, "HO - whoa whoa! Hey, I like 1978 too, but y'know this isn't gonna be a beer and strippers do. I mean, no offence but I think you might turn heads on the runway for the wrong reasons."

Tommy says, "What's wrong with the way I'm dressed?"

Ken says, "OK, look, here. Stop by Rafael's, tell him I sent ya. He'll make you look respectable."

Ken gives Tommy the card, and Tommy leaves the office to drive to Rafael's. Tommy finds the parking lot around the corner of Rafael's. He parks his car in the second floor and walks down to the store. He uses his card to buy the required outfit for free. After buying the outfit, he heads back to the parking lot, but someone steals Tommy's car just before Tommy arrives at the spot where he originally parked. Tommy steals a nearby car and heads to the yacht in Vice Beach Port. Upon arrival at the yacht, Tommy introduces Cortez, who will talk about the ambushed drug deal later. Cortez introduces Tommy to his daughter, Mercedes Cortez who then introduces to the party guests who are Vice City's big players until the meeting of Ricardo Diaz. Once Mercedes and Tommy met Ricardo Diaz, they wanted to leave the party. Mercedes tells Tommy to drive to the Pole Position Club located in Ocean Beach. Mercedes asks Tommy several questions with the response of "Maybe" on the way to the strip club. Tommy drops Mercedes off at the club and then heads back home for the day in order to relax and sleep.

Tommy leaves the hotel and heads back to the office once again. Rosenberg wants Tommy to learn more about the ambushed drug deal. He tells Tommy to meet Kent Paul, the biggest rumor guy in Vice City, at the Malibu Club at the south border of Vice Point where he can be usually found. Tommy meets Kent Paul, who tells Tommy about his part-time chef and hitman named Leo Teal, who has "been looking real pleased with himself lately". Tommy leaves the club and heads to the alley between Ocean Drive and the next street. He meets Leo Teal and tries to ask him to give any information about the ambush. Teal refuses, and the Super Smash Brawl begins. Tommy beats Teal to death and collects Teal's cell phone. Lance Vance shows up at the brawl and states that he too wants to learn more about the ambush that kills his brother, Victor. Three more chefs come to attack Tommy and Lance. Tommy and Lance go to Lance's Infernus. Lance has Tommy drive to Ammu-Nation located in Ocean Beach in order to show where to buy the weapons. Then, the two drive back to Ocean View Hotel and complete the job.

Shortly, Tommy is free to explore the surroundings. He walks to the beach and makes his way to the lighthouse and the beach. He walks to the Vice Beach Port. On the way, he stops at the helipad and looks at the surroundings. He goes to the Vice Beach Port and explores it. Then, he walks back to the Ocean View Hotel to be done for the day and also goes to sleep.

Tommy wakes up and drops by Ken's office in Washington Beach where Ken tells him that the Forelli Family is angry that they do not have the family's money. So, in the meantime, Tommy has to do them a favor; Sonny's cousin, Giorgio, is going to serve five years in prison for fraud unless the jury changes their minds. Tommy leaves Ken's office and sees a golfer run over a worker, who drops his hammer. Tommy takes the hammer (and optionally, the golfer's abandoned Glendale) and drives to either of the jurors. One of the jurors has his car parked at a high-rise building in Vice Point. Tommy smashes the car with his hammer until the juror comes out and runs away. Tommy then drives to the second juror. The other juror is standing next to his car in Ocean Beach, talking to a woman. Tommy approaches the second juror, who attempts to flee in his car but crashes into a passing Spand Express truck. Tommy smashes the car with a hammer until the second juror gets out and flees. Then he buys his pistol ammo.

Mr. Black contacts Tommy Vercetti after Jury Fury, believing him to be Leo Teal, a person who Tommy killed not too long ago, after learning he might have been involved in the ambushed deal Tommy participated in. Mr. Black tells him to go to the payphone in Washington Mall. When Tommy arrives, Mr. Black will tell Tommy he will find the instructions underneath the payphone. The instructions state that pizza delivery man Carl Pearson is to be killed before he finishes making his deliveries. Tommy then locates and kills Pearson, completing the mission. Then he explores the mall and the pay n spray. He goes to the hotel and sleeps.

Tommy leaves the hotel, drives, and walks into Ken's office and finds him talking to Texas property developer Avery Carrington. Avery then tells Tommy about a small company,

Gener Guzman

Spand Express, who owns some prime development land and refused to sell it. Avery asks Tommy to destroy the company's delivery trucks, first starting a riot to distract the security guards. Tommy leaves the office and drives to Rafael's to pick up some overalls, before driving to the Spand Express depot. Once there, Tommy starts a riot by attacking some of the striking workers, then kills the remaining security guards and destroys the three delivery trucks parked there. After this, he changes clothes at Ocean View Hotel back to normal.

After receiving a phone call from Cortez for a job, Tommy meets Cortez at his yacht. Cortez tells Tommy that Gonzalez, a man who Cortez has trusted for years, has now become incompetent and owes things to Cortez. He orders Tommy to kill Gonzalez and gives him a chainsaw, telling him that he will be rewarded.

Tommy goes to a penthouse Gonzalez was in at Vice Point where Gonzalez is being protected by two members of Diaz' men. Once in the penthouse, Gonzales spots Tommy and attempts to flee. Tommy quickly chases Gonzales down and kills him, alarming the police in the process. Tommy drives to the nearest Pay 'n' Spray to remove his wanted level. After this, Tommy goes to the hospital to explore, heal, and introduce how it works. That means whenever Tommy is low on health, he can go to the hospital or eat to heal.

Cortez hires Tommy to meet a courier, Pierre La Ponce, in the Washington Mall and retrieve some guidance chips that La Ponce should be delivering. Upon getting briefed by Cortez, Tommy makes his way to the mall and meets La Ponce on the second floor of the mall. Unfortunately, the GIGN ambushes the deal before La Ponce can hand over the guidance chips to Tommy. As soon as the GIGN appears, La Ponce makes a dash to some PCJ 600s parked outside, gets on one of them and tries to escape the mall, forcing Tommy to chase him and kill him to retrieve Cortez's merchandise. Upon retrieving the guidance chips, Tommy returns to the Ocean Bay Marina and gives them to Cortez, ending the mission.

Cortez's good friend Ricardo Diaz has a deal to close with the Cubans, but he could use some extra security. So Cortez wants Tommy to protect him, Cortez has set up some special firepower for the meeting in the Washington Beach multi-story car park.

Tommy drives to the multi-story car park in Ocean Beach and grabs the Ruger setup there for Tommy. Seconds later Lance Vance arrives, Tommy tells Lance to come along to which he agrees. Now drive Lance to the meet in an alley in Ocean Beach. Upon arriving, Ricardo Diaz will arrive as well, along with his bodyguards. Ricardo will then tell Tommy to get a good vantage point which is the balcony good enough for protection against the enemies.

Tommy climbs onto the balcony behind and waits for the Cubans to arrive. After some time of the Cubans' arrival, a Voodoo car will show up and four Haitians will get out. Tommy kills them instantly. Next another Voodoo shows up, and Tommy kills the Haitians getting out. Then several vehicles arrive, and Tommy kills them all. Throughout the ordeal, check on Lance who is in the balcony across Tommy, he will get attacked every once in a while.

After the last Haitian is done with, two last Haitians will appear riding Sanchez's; they will take Diaz's money, but one of them will get killed by Lance. Tommy gets one of the Uzis that the dead Haitians drop and then he gets on the dead guy's bike and chases the other guy. Tommy chases and kills the last Haitian by running over the bike and shooting at him.

Once he is killed, Tommy grabs the briefcase he drops with Diaz's money in it and goes back to where Diaz is. He gives him the money and is done for the day. From there, he returns home and begins to rest at the start of night.

Tommy Vercetti wakes up, drives, and drops by Avery Carrington's construction site in Vice Point to look for work after the two met at Ken Rosenbergs' office. Carrington informs Vercetti that he has a problem with a rival property developer who is refusing to sell some land he wants. Carrington asks Vercetti to 'persuade' the property developer into selling. He then informs Vercetti that the developer is playing golf at the Leaf Links Country Club and that he'll need a golfing outfit to enter through security.

Vercetti then leaves and stops at the Jocksport clothes store to purchase his new outfit, before driving to the Leaf Links Country Club. He passes through security, who confiscate his guns. Vercetti then locates the property developer, playing golf at the far side of the course. Vercetti, however, is spotted and security begin to attack him, with the rival property developer fleeing in a Caddy. He chases and kills the property developer, before leaving the country club. After this, he recovers the weapons at the golf security and goes to Well Stacked Pizza for dinner.

After Tommy wakes up the next day, he goes to Avery Carrington, who is looking at some more development land, located up the road from his construction site. Avery's problem is that construction has already begun, so Avery asks Tommy to destroy the site. Tommy leaves Avery's construction site and walks to the edge of the site, where a Top Fun van is located with an RC Goblin and four bombs. Tommy enters the van and uses the remote control helicopter to transport and plant bombs in various locations around the site, whilst avoiding the construction workers and security guards. After Tommy places the four bombs on the site, the bombs are detonated and the construction site is destroyed. Tommy grabs some pizza at Well Stacked Pizza Co and takes a lunch break there. After lunch break, he then drives to the payphone near the Washington Mall where Mr. Black is calling for the afternoon job of the day.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Mr. Black gets in contact once again with Tommy, thanking him for his earlier job well done. He then goes on to explain his next task, his employer wants his wife, Mrs. Dawson, dead. Tommy drives to the Jewelry shop in Vice Point, where he sees Dawson leaving and getting into her yellow Comet. Tommy destroys her car by ramming his car to it, to make it look like an accident, despite her attempts to escape after she realizes Tommy's intentions. Tommy goes back to the hotel in order to eat dinner near the lobby and go to sleep in the room.

After Tommy Vercetti wakes up at the hotel, he heads to Ricardo Diaz's mansion in Starfish Island. Ricardo Diaz tells Tommy Vercetti that the Sharks gang steals 3% of his income and that Tommy should follow the gang leader where he is keeping the money. Tommy leaves the mansion and heads to the apartment in Vice Point near the Leaf Links golf course. He finds nobody inside the apartment, but the leader appears to be fleeing by the roof. The leader is making his way to the BF Injection while Tommy is chasing. After the leader gets in the BF Injection, Tommy chases him into one of the houses in Prawn Island while the gang members riding the BF Injection try to kill Tommy Vercetti using a strong weapon enough to explode the chaser. Good thing that the weapon is not an M4 because if it is, Vercetti would have been dead.

Tommy returns to the mansion and checks with Diaz. Diaz still wants the money, so he sends Tommy and Lance to Prawn Island house by helicopter equipped with the M60 gun. Once the helicopter arrives at the house in Prawn Island, Tommy uses the M60 gun to kill the gang members guarding the house. Later, Lance sends Tommy down the ground, so Tommy can fight the gangs through as he makes his way to the rooftop. After Tommy arrives at the rooftop, he collects the stolen money. Lance's helicopter appears to pick up Tommy and return to the mansion. Later, Colonel Juan Cortez calls, "Tommy, it's me, Colonel Cortez. Look señor, I believe you are a man who can get things done. So please help me. You can find me at the boat."

The hurricane misses Vice City, so the warning is lifted and thus opening the bridges. When the bridges are open, anyone can have access to and from the Vice City Mainland. Before, even all the docks are closed which prevents anyone from going to the other side.

Chapter 2

Tommy wakes up at the hotel for the next day, he heads to the Ocean Beach marines & checks in with Colonel Juan Cortez. Cortez has a buyer that wants a tank locked up in Little Haiti. The tank that should be stolen is located on the military convoy on the way to Fort Baxter Air Base via Bayshore Avenue. Tommy heads to Bayshore Ave and heads north. He sees the conveyor and blocks it. He steals the tank while the commander tells the convoy to move the car out of the way. The commander says, "Sir Yes Sir!" while the soldiers begin attacking the stolen tank. The tank escapes the convoy and the cops, making its way to the lock up just before self-destruction. After Tommy parks the tank at the lock up, Kent Paul calls, "Alright me ol'china! It's Paul. I might have a little result for you, but I need to speak to you in person. I'm enjoying a little R&R at Club Malibu. Reckon you're gonna owe me a favor or two after this, sunshine. I'll see you later." Tommy leaves the area and eats lunch.

Tommy heads to Avery's site after lunch. Avery Carrington wants real estate prices in Vice City to go down, so he wants to start a gang war between the Cuban Gang and the Haitian Gang. A Haitian Gang Lord died recently, apparently the Cubans did it but nobody knows for sure. Avery wants Tommy to make the Haitians sure they did it by killing the new Haitian Gang Lord at the old one's funeral.

After getting the briefing from Avery, Tommy heads down to the Little Havana clothes store and picks up a Cuban Hombre outfit. He returns to his car and drives to the funeral which is located near Little Haiti's Pizza restaurant. The Haitians are alerted and starts to kill Tommy.

Gener Guzman

Tommy's health is mostly gone because of the M4 gun. His car almost explodes, so he almosts failed the mission. After the gang lord gets in his Romeo, he escapes. Tommy uses the drive-by uzi to explode the Romeo. He uses his car to run over the other lord. He escapes Little Haiti.

After killing, Umberto Robina calls, "Hey Leo! I got some work for you!"

Vercetti says, "This ain't Leo."

Robina says, "Hey, if Leo knows you got his phone, he gonna kill you!"

Vercetti says, "Maybe Leo's already dead. Maybe I killed Leo and took his phone - you think of that prick?"

Robina says, "You killed Leo? You must have big cojones - wanna work for me!? Drop by my father's cafe in Little Havana and we'll talk mano a mano."

Tommy arrives at Ricardo Diaz's mansion to find him shooting at pigeons for defecating on his car. Diaz tells Tommy that the Boatyard in Viceport has built a speedboat for a Costa Rican drug lord, and Diaz asks Tommy to steal the boat.

Tommy drives to the Boatyard and discovers that the boatyard is patrolled by heavily-armed guards. He fights his way into the yard using his guns and activates the switch to lower the boat into the water. He kills more guards on the way to the boat.

After killing more pursuing guards, Tommy enters the boat and sails back to Diaz's mansion. By this time, Tommy attracted police attention, but he managed to escape back to the mansion with the boat. From there, he parks the boat at the mansion dock and makes his way into the mansion. He returns to the mansion room to check with Diaz again for the next task.

Some freelancer moors his yacht into Vice City every month. The yacht is referred to as "The Drugboat", since the freelancer sells drugs from that boat. However, he only sells his cargo to the first customers to arrive in his yacht, and Diaz wants Tommy and Lance Vance to be those first buyers. Tommy leaves the mansion by going downstairs through the backyard.

Tommy gets to the Squalo and meets up with Lance, and the duo decide to get to the drug boat first before other boats make it. Once arriving at the boat, Lance takes control of the Squalo and Tommy begins to protect him and the boat. He fights with the attacking rivals and gets back to Diaz. He purchases the apartment near Leaf Links golf course with a garage and sleeps there.

Tommy wakes up at the apartment and arrives at the Malibu Club and Kent Paul approaches him. Paul informs Tommy that Lance Vance tried to attack Ricardo Diaz but failed, and Diaz's men are now holding him hostage at the Junkyard. Tommy leaves the club and drives across town to the junkyard where he finds it heavily guarded by Diaz's goons.

Tommy fights his way to a storage hangar at the rear of the junkyard where he finds a heavily injured, but still lingering, Lance. Tommy berates Lance for his actions as it has "blown all [his] careful planning to shit", but Lance reveals he was attempting to get revenge for Diaz ordering his brother's death. Tommy decides they must now kill Diaz before he has a chance to kill them, and agrees to drive Lance to the hospital.

Tommy then escapes with Lance. When the duo leave the junkyard they are chased by more of Diaz's men. Tommy manages to evade them and takes Lance to the Schuman Health Care Center Downtown. Tommy tells Lance to meet him by the bridge to Starfish Island once he has recovered. Cortez calls, "Tommy, Thomas it's Cortez. Look, the French are giving me all kinds of trouble, amigo. Damn hypocrites. They spend a hundred years stealing from poor countries and they call me a thief! I am going to need your help as soon as possible, amigo. So please hurry, Tommy, I need you, all right? I hate the damn French."

Gener Guzman

The French secret service has discovered that Cortez sent the courier (in Mall Shootout) to steal the missile technology guidance chips, and now they want them back. Cortez, however, wants to keep them and so is escaping Vice City on his yacht. He asks Tommy for assistance. Tommy goes to sleep before the boat leaves in the morning.

The boat leaves the dock, with French secret servicemen firing from the docks and four boats following the yacht. Tommy fights them off and then more gunmen on Dinghys. The yacht reaches a bridge, which is blocked by more boats. More servicemen are also climbing on board, but Tommy again manages to defeat them. The French then attack with two Maverick helicopters and then a Hunter, with Tommy destroying all three. When in the open sea, Cortez asks Tommy to keep an eye on Mercedes and gives Tommy a speedboat to return to Vice City. Despite being told to keep the speedboat as a gift, there is no way to actually save the speedboat as there is no 'garage' for boats, but it will respawn where Cortez's yacht used to be.

After this, Kent Paul calls, "Alright, Tommy, it's Paul. I just heard from a mush that you've been a real naughty boy. Somebody has taken offense to you acting like the big guy all of a sudden, giving it the big shot thing. Well, don't say I never warned you or nothing. Boasting is a mug's game, son. Anyway, I heard there's some price been put on your head and someone's going to have a crack at you, so watch yourself, and remember me, mate."

Tommy decides to act on his plan to kill Diaz. He meets up with Lance on the bridge to Starfish Island, and Lance provides Tommy with an M4 Carbine, which is the weapon that soldiers use and is capable of exploding vehicles within a few minutes or killing an armored enemy super quickly. They enter Diaz's Mansion and manage to shoot their way through the mansion's gardens. They enter the mansion through the back door, next to an indoor pool, and shoot their way through the hallways. They eventually reach the main hall where Diaz is waiting, having spotted them entering his property through CCTV and its cameras.

Diaz has eight guards as protection but they, along with Diaz himself, are killed. Diaz, heavily injured, manages to crawl to the top of the stairs, claiming to have trusted Tommy, before Tommy and Lance kill him with two pistols. After this, Kent Paul calls, "Tommy son, have I got a surprise for you, I'm down at the recording studios with some major artists. Why don't you pay us a visit? You know it makes sense, dontcha? See ya later."

Later, Sonny calls, "Tommy, remember me?"

Vercetti responds, "Hello, Sonny."

Sonny says, "That's right, Sonny. We're old friends. You never write me, you never call. Don't you want to be friends no more?"

Vercetti says, "I've been busy trying to sort things out. You didn't give me a lot of support down here, Sonny."

Sonny says, "Oh, my fault is it? Well, I've heard you been busy all right. Busy killing drug barons. Busy taking over. Don't forget about us, Tommy. 'cause I can assure you, I ain't forgetting about you."

Tommy explores the mansion to spend the rest of the time before sleeping.

After taking over Diaz's mansion and sleeping there for the first time, Tommy discusses with Lance, Ken, and Avery on what to do next. Lance tells Tommy that some stores are refusing to pay protection money since Diaz's death. Tommy heads to the North Point Mall to do a hit and run on the shop fronts to scare them into paying protection. As he destroys the windows of the shops, Tommy gets increasing attention from the police. Tommy manages to smash all the windows of five shops within five hours. By the time the windows of five shops has been smashed, police attention increases, but Tommy manages to escape by hiding in the mall.

Mr. Black calls, "Get to the payphone at the airport terminal."

Later, Avery Carrington says, "Howdy son, just thought I'd ring you up and give you some advice."

Tommy responds, "Hey, Avery, what's eating you?"

Avery says, "There's a lot of opportunity in this town if you own the right real estate, you catch my drift?"

Tommy says, "I reckon so..."

Avery says, "All I'm saying is keep your eyes open and you might find the perfect business opportunity. I'll catch y'later."

Tommy says, "Later, Avery".

Tommy goes to sleep. Once he wakes up, he comes to the bar and sees Lance. Lance explains that the Front Page Cafe is refusing to pay protection because they are instead protected by a "local gang of thugs". Tommy argues and decides to deal with the cafe. He drives to Ocean Drive where the cafe is and kills the guards. He speaks to the cafe owner. The owner explains that the DBP Security has been supplying his protection and wants Tommy to discuss with the security. Tommy drives to the headquarters and attacks the two guards, but the guards escape in PCJ 600s locked in a Securicar. Tommy chases the Securicar and kills the guards inside. He heads back home and steals an SUV on the way. He explores the mansion just before sleeping.

When Tommy wakes up, he finds that Lance and Mike are arguing about the failed bomb detonation of the Tarbrush Cafe in North Point Mall. Tommy listens to the argument of detonation. That has meant that the Tarbrush Cafe was to be destroyed earlier before the cops may have defused the bomb quickly in time in order to save the cafe and its business.

Lance wants to abandon the detonation because the police are surrounding the area, but Tommy comes up with a good idea. Tommy and Lance can pose themselves as police officers and detonate the bomb at the cafe. They commit a crime and lure the police officers into a garage in Vice Point. They ambush the officers and steal their uniforms. They head to the mall and walk past the officers. They actually detonate the bomb which results in the cafe exploding. After the cafe explodes, the FBI is alerted, so Lance and Tommy get a five-star wanted level. The FBI is equipped with a heavy rancher. Lance and Tommy get in a car with Tommy driving. Tommy attempts to drive back home while dodging the FBI. The FBI ranchers are scary, and Tommy thinks that if the ranchers ram into the car, the car will fly above and end up so high that it will eventually crash into the ground around Liberty City or Africa. The car would have exploded while the two got wasted thus failing the mission. After Tommy thinks about that situation, he arrives at his mansion. He buys another property in Ocean Beach and goes to a grocery store in Vice Point south of North Point Mall. He heads back to the new apartment and sleeps.

When Tommy wakes up, he heads downtown to the Love Fist building. He meets Kent Paul which tells Tommy to buy a drug named Love Juice. Tommy heads to the drug dealer which has the Love Juice. The drug dealer refuses and escapes in a PCJ 600, but Tommy rams the motorcycle and the drug dealer before collecting the drug. Kent Paul tells Tommy to bring Mercedes to Love Fist, so Tommy picks her up from her apartment and drives her to Love Fist. After Mercedes is dropped off at Love Fist, he walks down to the pizza restaurant and eats. This starts the lunch break. After lunch, Tommy returns to work by walking north.

Tommy heads back to Lost Fist headquarters where Kent Paul tells that a psycho killer wants Love Fist dead. He drives the Love Fist limo where Love Fist plans to take out the killer. The killer kills the security guard and blames Love Fist for ruining his life. He tries to escape in a Sentinel car while Tommy chases and kills him. After Tommy seemingly kills the psycho, he explores downtown a little bit before heading back home for bed.

Tommy has experience with Love Fist, but Kent Paul wants to meet a local Biker gang's leader at The Greasy Chopper. Tommy finds Mitch, who makes fun playing pool. He finds what Mitch is interested in which is racing with the bikes. Mitch sends two bikers to race with Tommy. Tommy takes the bike and starts racing around downtown. He manages to win the race.

Tommy drops by The Greasy Chopper once again, looking to see if Mitch agrees to pull security for Kent Paul's concert with Love Fist.

Mitch however still doesn't agree, knowing that he wasn't proven 'badass' enough to earn their protection, angrily saying that his family composes of hard bad ass'. To prove his word, he instructs Tommy to go out and "kick the city's ass." which means chaos. Vercetti goes out and starts causing carnage; destroying vehicles, shooting pedestrians and attacking the police.

In under two hours he proves himself and earns more trust in the Biker Gang.

As a final favor for Mitch Baker before he agrees to handle security for Love Fist, Baker wants Tommy to get his bike back that was stolen by a gang. His bike is kept at a compound behind the Downtown Ammu-Nation. The compound is heavily guarded by several gang members. Tommy grabs a bike and uses the stairs of a close building and reaches by making a unique jump to the rooftop of Ammu-Nation that allows him to enter the compound. As Tommy enters the compound, he is attacked by several gang members guarding Mitch's bike, Tommy however manages to take them out and retrieves the bike. As he drives back to The Greasy Choppers, gang members pursue Tommy with their vans, but Tommy soon arrives at The Greasy Chopper, safely delivering Mitch's Angel and completing the missions for the day.

The psycho transvestite fan that was believed to be killed by Tommy has placed a bomb in the Love Fist Limo, which will go off if the Limo goes under 50 mph, meaning that Tommy has to drive over that speed for 1 hour 50 minutes (1 minute 50 seconds real time) until Love Fist defuses the bomb in the limo. Throughout the mission, on the top right side of the screen, a detonation bar will appear. If Tommy goes beneath a certain speed, it will fill up. If he goes above a certain speed, it will empty down. If the bar fills up completely, the limo explodes and the mission will end in failure. When the bomb is defused, Tommy drives Love Fist to their gig and after a cut-scene, the mission is complete.

Tommy Vercetti receives a call on the mobile phone he stole from Leo Teal from an unnamed member of the Cubans. After he tells the Cuban that he killed Leo, the Cuban suggests that he drive to the Café Robina in Little Havana and speak to Umberto Robina. In the café, Umberto confronts Tommy and questions his masculinity. Tommy insults him right back, and Umberto tells him to prove himself by proving he can drive a boat. Tommy leaves the cafe and heads back to his mansion to watch TV, relax, and sleep. However, he sleeps on a couch since the mansion is weird due to the fact that there is no bed in any of the big mansion rooms there.

After Tommy wakes up, he gets ready for work and drives to the small docks by the Leaf Links Bridge. Upon arrival, Rico, a member of the Cubans, accompanies Tommy to watch him.

The boat departs and goes through a series of checkpoints, including some sections through narrow canals, and a few ramps. As some of the checkpoints are in the air above the ramps which requires the boat to be driven with enough speed, good handling and patience. Tommy goes through the checkpoints as fast as he can to pass the challenge.

After doing the stunt boat challenge, Auntie Poulet calls, “Tommy, 'nuf dead man been chattin' about you, my dear. Thought you might need something to make you feel better. So Auntie Poulet make you some stew, aye? Come by me kitchen some time, ok Tommy?”

After the call, Tommy heads to Little Haiti by the Lead Links Bridge and explores it, He starts by Northeast Little Havana at the Laundromat and makes his way to South Downtown. He stops at a pizza restaurant as a part of exploring the district. He explores various places such as the junkyard, the cemetery, the drug store, Bayshore Ave, and other areas. He later heads back to his home in Starfish Island and enjoys the night before he goes to sleep.

Chapter 3

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready to go to work. He goes downstairs and gets to the garage to go to the car. From there, he drives to Little Haiti to meet Auntie Poulet to start the first job of the day. Upon arrival, Tommy goes to the kitchen to begin work.

Tommy was told to drop by Auntie Poulet's shack yesterday. Later on, she gives him some voodoo potion, and tasks him to collect three stashes dotted around Little Haiti. Under the effects of Auntie Poulet's potion, Tommy goes to retrieve the stashes for her. As he collects the first stash, on the roof of a building near the Junkyard, Tommy is ambushed by VCPD SWAT, but manages to escape. Tommy then quickly grabs a vehicle and heads to the locations where the remaining stashes are located, one at an intersection in central Little Haiti, and one outside a building at the edge of Little Haiti, while being pursued by the cops and the FBI. After collecting all of them, Tommy heads back to Auntie Poulet's shack, completing the mission.

After the morning mission, Tommy stays near the shack and takes a lunch break. From there, he explores Little Haiti a little bit and notices a gang there. Luckily, the gangs do not seem as a threat just yet, so there is no worry. Last, he returns to work.

Auntie Poulet wants Tommy to destroy a fleet of Cuban boats that are used to traffic drugs. She drugs Tommy and instructs him to enter a Top Fun van nearby to use RC Barons to drop bombs over the Cubans on Starfish Island. Tommy remotely pilots the RC Baron and manages to destroy all the Cuban boats and kill any Cubans who witnessed this event. After this mission, Tommy weirdly takes an afternoon break and then returns to the last mission of the day.

Gener Guzman

Auntie Poulet informs Tommy of a Haitian and Cuban battle that will soon be occurring nearby. She wants Tommy to use a sniper rifle and make sure the Haitians win the battle. Assuming that if he succeeds in this final job she will let him go, Tommy heads up to a roof across the street from the battle and makes himself hidden. The Haitians and Cubans are in a fist fight as no guns are allowed. As the Cubans lose the battle, reinforcements for the Cubans come, some with weapons. Tommy snipes the Cubans one by one as the Haitians are beating them up. The Haitians manage to win the battle and Tommy is no longer under the control of Auntie Poulet. After this, Auntie cuts her ties with Tommy, telling him that she doesn't want him around Little Haiti anymore. Finally, Tommy is done and goes to a pizza restaurant nearby for a drive-thru dinner. After going to a drive-thru, he goes to his mansion and sleeps for the night.

Tommy Vercetti wakes up the next day and gets ready for work by wandering around the mansion finding materials. He gets in the car and drives to work.

Tommy Vercetti goes to Café Robina and meets Umberto Robina, who has started an open gang war with the Haitians, sending his men to attack their drug factory in Little Haiti. The factory, however, is proving impregnable and so Umberto sends Vercetti to drive some new Cuban gangsters to the scene and help to steal the Haitian's van loaded with a drugs shipment. Vercetti leaves the café and finds a four-door vehicle and returns to collect three Cubans before driving to The Well Stacked Pizza Co. store opposite an alleyway leading to the factory, dropping off the Cubans and meeting Rico. Vercetti kills a number of Haitians guarding the entrance and, after they are dead, some Cubans run down the alleyway and into the factory walls, but are killed by a sniper. Rico calls reinforcement for the attack. Vercetti, now joined by three more Cubans, kills the sniper and enters the factory walls, killing all the Haitians he meets.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Vercetti and Rico then get into the Haitian van and drive it back to the café. After returning to the cafe, Vercetti completes the morning job. He takes a lunch break at the cafe and waits for the next job to begin. Once lunch break is over, he meets Umberto to continue the afternoon.

Umberto is annoyed that the Haitians forced him to escape during the beginning of the previous mission so he wants Tommy to mess up a Haitian drug deal. The Haitians are having a deal with the Street Wannabes in a mansion in Starfish Island, so Rico and Tommy approach there in a speedboat to screw up the deal from the water.

Tommy then goes to Viceport, where Rico is waiting with his Jetmax. Upon getting, Rico and Tommy get into the boat and they drive to the Mansion where the deal is going down.

Arriving, Tommy opens fire at the Haitian bodyguards on the Tropic boats, then, the Street Wannabes will turn on the Haitians. They kill the three Haitians conducting the deal and take the coke. Tommy kills all the Haitian bodyguards on the Tropics and then blows one of them up to leave Rico some space in which to drop Tommy off.

Rico drops Tommy off, the Sharks, wielding Rugers, soon begin to attack Tommy. Tommy takes good cover and gun them down. Be careful of the few Sharks wielding Stubby Shotguns. There are two in the garden, one in the entrance, two around the sides of the house, one on the roof and two on the right side of the house and the small bridge hiding to ambush Tommy. When they're all dead, pick up the briefcases of drugs that they drop. There are two near the house and one in the alcove where the negotiations were taking place. Once Tommy collects the drugs, two surviving Haitians in a Dinghy blow up Rico's Jetmax, land, and start shooting at Tommy, but he still kills them. After that, he is alerted with a high wanted level. This makes the job hard as the cops and the Haitians attempt to kill Tommy for good.

Gener Guzman

Tommy kills the few remaining Haitians and escapes. He returns to the café and delivers the drugs to Umberto. After returning to the cafe and delivering the drugs, he is done for the day and therefore returns to the mansion for the night.

Tommy wakes up the next day and prepares for the big day. That means the next job is basically major for the boss and can impact how hostile a gang could be because Tommy believes that the Haitians are beginning to become enemies. After thinking about that, he gets in his car and drives from the garage to the Little Havana cafe for the job.

Umberto has had enough of the Haitians control over the distribution of drugs in Vice City, and sends Tommy to destroy their plant in Little Haiti. After locating a Haitian gang car, Tommy and Pepe meet with some of Pepe's friends and drive to the Haitian drug factory, using the Voodooos to gain access. After accessing the factory, Tommy plants four bombs in various locations around the factory within a set time limit, whilst killing any pursuing Haitians. After planting the bombs, Tommy flees the factory, only to find the Haitians have blocked the exit off. After finding a way out of the compound, the bombs detonate and destroy the factory. As a result, the Haitians begin to get angry at Tommy. That means from now on, the Haitians are scanning all traffic for faces, so that they can attack Tommy if they spot him in Little Haiti. Meanwhile, Tommy returns home to take a break and then goes to Washington Mall.

Tommy receives a phone call at a public payphone outside the Washington Mall and receives instructions from Mr. Black to kill members of a European gang, currently undercover in the city, before they rob a bank. Tommy first locates and kills Mike Griffin, who is working as a builder on a billboard outside the Washington Mall. Next, Tommy then locates and kills Dick Tanner, who is working as a security guard for DBP Security. Tommy then locates and kills

Marcus Hammond and Franco Carter, who are working as carpenters and are located in a Bobcat close to the jewelry store in Vice Point. Tommy then locates and kills Nick Kong, who is posing as a tourist on a boat close to Avery Carrington's construction site. Finally, Tommy locates and kills the last member of the gang, Charlie Dilson, who is riding his PCJ-600 around Ocean Drive, and the mission is complete. After the mission is complete, Tommy is done for all jobs of the day. He finally relaxes at the mansion before resting for the night.

Chapter 4

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready for work. This time, his work starting location is at Escobar International Airport. He drives there.

Tommy goes to a payphone inside the airport terminal, and Mr. Black informs he has left him a sniper rifle to assassinate a businessman with a briefcase. To help him, he tells him there is a woman standing above the check in desk who is going to speak with the man. Tommy waits until the conversation is over before killing the businessman and retrieving his briefcase. After evading the police and the businessman's gunmen, Tommy delivers the briefcase to the Ammu-Nation in Downtown. After that, he takes a break in the middle of the day.

After break, Tommy goes to Malibu Club. He needs a safe-cracker for the bank job he is planning. Ken Rosenberg suggests a man named Cam Jones. However, Jones is currently in police custody awaiting transfer, so Tommy decides to "parole" Jones.

Tommy heads to the police station in Washington Beach and puts on a police uniform. He must not have any weapon drawn, otherwise the police will open fire on him after their first warning. After locating a key card in the station offices, Tommy heads down to the holding cells where Jones is located. Tommy swipes the key card and releases Jones from the cells.

At this point, the police realize Tommy is an imposter and open fire on him and Jones. Tommy and Jones flee the station and drive to a nearby Pay 'n' Spray. After losing the police, Tommy drives Jones to his home in Little Havana. Tommy drops Jones off, who agrees to be a safe-cracker for the heist. Last, Tommy goes home and sleeps.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Tommy wants a stickup man for the job. Cam Jones recommends Phil Cassidy as he considers him to be one of the best shooters in town. Tommy heads to Downtown to a shooting range to meet Phil. Phil challenges Tommy to a shooting contest, and will only assist him if he wins. After that, he takes a break before the next job.

Tommy answers the ringing payphone in Little Havana. Mr. Black knows of an exchange taking place on the roof of the Cherry Popper Ice Cream Company. He wants Tommy to collect his merchandise. Tommy enters the compound behind the factory and opens fire on several armed gunmen around the area. He manages to reach the roof of the factory and obtains a briefcase with the merchandise. Using the Maverick nearby, Tommy brings the briefcase to the helipad at Escobar International Airport. Last, he goes back home and sleeps.

After Tommy wakes up the next day, he prepares for another work which is about a heist setup, which means he is also about to rob a bank soon.

Tommy, Ken and Phil are all in the club, with Tommy saying that the heist plan is coming together nicely, and the only thing left to do is to hire a driver. Ken suggests himself, but Phil suggests Hilary King, describing him as a great driver. Phil calls Hilary, and asks if he can offer his services to Tommy. He says yes, but only if Tommy beats him in a race.

Tommy goes outside to Hilary, who is inside his Sabre Turbo. He explains that if Tommy loses to him, he will not work for Tommy. Tommy then gets inside a Sentinel and races against Hilary. He passes through all checkpoints scattered around Vice Beach, all while being chased by the Vice City Police Department for illegal racing. Later on, he eventually passes the finish line first, and Hilary agrees to work for him. After completing the morning job, Tommy goes to Well Stacked Pizza restaurant and eats lunch there as a break.

After lunch, Tommy spends the rest of the day preparing for the heist. The next day, he is well prepared for the heist and goes to Malibu Club to start.

Shortly after purchasing the Malibu Club, Tommy finds his team in order to pull off a heist at a bank in Little Havana. Tommy finds all of the necessary positions for his team, and heads for the Malibu Club. Upon arrival the four of them, along with Ken Rosenberg discuss the sequence of the robbery. Then they head for the bank. Once there Tommy tells Hilary to keep driving around the block, then the three of them change out of their current clothing and into green jumpsuits with hockey masks. They are then ready to begin the robbery.

Afterwards, they head inside and begin the robbery. Phil is instructed to keep an eye on all of the civilians. Tommy and Cam head upstairs to the bank's vault while killing security guards. After having difficulty with the vault, Tommy goes down to the manager's office, and holds him at gunpoint, and has him follow him. Once up there the manager helps them open the vault. Tommy then decides to check on Phil, only to go down there to find a civilian being shot by Phil for activating an alarm. Tommy then gets ready to fend off members of the Vice City SWAT. At the same time Cam tells them the vault is open. The three of them kill the SWAT Team, and head outside, only to find more SWAT waiting for them. Hilary then shows up to help them but is immediately gunned down by a SWAT agent. The team kill the remaining SWAT and drive to the nearby Pay 'n' Spray, and afterwards to Cam's Can Openers, where they meet Kent Paul and Mercedes Cortez. Last, Tommy rests for the day with lots of money.

Chapter 5

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready for work. He waits for more instructions of what to do, where to meet, and how the job is done.

After the successful bank heist, Phil phones Tommy saying he can receive some extra weaponry. He goes over to his depot to find Phil, who, having just accidentally exposed one of his boomshine stills to an open flame, comes running around the corner and screams at Tommy to run. They barely flee to a safe distance when the detonation of the still destroys Phil's Walton. Phil tells Tommy about a Mexican arms dealer named Pedro Garcia who is doing his weekly run. Phil then asks Tommy to steal the weapons shipment. Tommy rams the gun runners' trucks until the weapon crates fall out, smashes the crates, collects the weapons (a .357, SPAS 12, M60, and MAC-10) and finally kill all the gun runners in the trucks while being pursued by many Faggio-riding backup, completing the mission for the rest of the day while Tommy rests.

After the next morning begins, Tommy gets ready to go back to work. His work starting place is the same as yesterday. He drives and goes to Phil's Place and finds a drunken Phil, who shows him his boomshine bombs. Phil presses the detonator as Tommy ducks down on reflex, but the bomb fails to detonate. Realizing it must be the remote's batteries, Phil staggers over where he has fresh ones sitting on the bench beside the bomb. Having just changed the batteries, Phil throws up his arms in celebration, with the bomb just off to his right. The motion causes him to accidentally detonate the bomb, and the explosion blows off Phil's right arm. Phil knows he's injured, but only falls to his knees laughing, too drunk to feel the pain.

Intoxicated by the boomshine fumes, Tommy gets Phil into his Patriot and drives him to the West Haven Community Healthcare Centre. However, a hallucinating Phil states that the hospital is full of police and Viet Cong, and instead asks to be driven to an ex-army surgeon in Little Havana (as he owes Phil a favor, and a lawnmower), completing the mission. After the mission, Tommy goes to a donut place and eats donuts in Little Havana.

After lunch, Tommy goes to a nearby Sunshine Autos and purchases the asset. He finds out that his next job is to import specific types of cars into Sunshine Autos and storing the cars inside the back garage in order to check the list off. He researches the types of cars and its images that he needs. However, he cannot import all of the cars in one day. Luckily, he can import cars into the garage at any time whenever he takes a half day or a whole day off from the main missions. After importing some cars in, Tommy goes home for the night.

After getting up, Tommy gets ready for work again. However, he has to purchase another asset. He drives to Little Haiti and purchases the Kaufman Cab asset. From there, he learns about the company and how it works before starting work.

Doris states that a V.I.P. a customer has asked for a ride to Escobar International Airport from his mansion in Starfish Island, so Tommy manages to approach there in the Kaufman Cab. Upon arriving, Tommy finds that a VC Cabs driver wants to take over the business, while the V.I.P. getting into the rival's taxi. He even stops the VC Cabs driver by crashing at him repeatedly, and the V.I.P. gets into the Kaufman Cab. Tommy then sends him to the airport.

After completing the morning job, Tommy takes a break in the middle of the day. After that, he takes his first break from the main jobs by reserving the time to find and import cars in. He finds several cars and collects them. Last, Tommy rests for the night.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready for work. He gets out of the mansion and into the car. From there, he drives back to Kaufman Cabs depot.

After taking a high class fare to the airport in the previous mission, Doris informs Tommy that due to the abundance of Vice City Cabs, Kaufman Cabs is losing business. Doris tells Tommy that he better do something before they lose business. Tommy then enters a Kaufman Cab, after being given an Uzi, Tommy chases and destroys the three opposing VC cabs, completing the mission. After that, he takes a break around noon time.

Tommy returns to work by getting in the cab. He drives over to a vacant lot in Viceport where a competition battle is about to begin. However, Mercedes is not there. Six Taxis from Vice City Cabs immediately drive into the lot, ganging up on Tommy.

At the vacant lot, Tommy drives around the lot and avoids being killed. After the time runs out, the zebra cab comes with the driver being the owner of Vice City Cabs. Tommy drives around and kills the owner and then completes the cab asset. After completing the asset, Tommy returns home and goes to sleep once the night begins.

Chapter 6

Tommy wakes up the next day with the reward of completing the cab asset. Now he gets ready and finds another set to purchase, which is the Print Works.

After buying the Print Works, Tommy Vercetti meets Earnest Kelly, the former owner. Tommy explains that his father used to work in print works and Tommy cleaned the rollers with him as a child. Tommy intends to keep the Print Works open, and Earnest suggests that printing money is the profitable thing to do. He heard rumors of a money counterfeiting syndicate operating in the state but does not know anything more.

Knowing a man who is "good with rumors", Tommy heads to the Malibu Club to meet Kent Paul. After a slight scuffle, Paul tells Tommy that the boss of a shipping company at Viceport knows about the syndicate. Tommy heads down to Viceport and gets into a gunfight with a gang guarding the ship. After acquiring the information he needs from the boss, he heads back to the Print Works. Last, Tommy takes his middle break.

After the middle break, Tommy spends the rest of the day finding cars. At first, he finds specific cars and walks around into Bayshore Avenue to find specific cars. He sometimes carjacks or steals them while parked. He stores the cars inside the Sunshine Autos garage and checks them off the list. Last, Tommy goes back home for the night.

When Tommy wakes up, he gets ready to return to Print Works in order to continue the job. He drives to work in Little Haiti and begins working.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

After finding out about the counterfeit plates, Tommy sets out to intercept them from a courier landing in Viceport. After a brief conversation with Lance and Earnest, he leaves for Viceport. Upon arriving at the docks, he is attacked by several armed women whom he kills. He then waits for the courier who arrives in Maverick with another bodyguard. He kills both of them, and grabs the chips. Afterwards, he returns to the Print Works. After the mission has been completed, the Printworks will drop $8000 daily.

After completing the Printworks asset, Tommy takes a break and then goes to Pole Position Club in Ocean Beach. From there, he purchases the asset. Shortly after, he goes inside the strip club and begins private dancing with one of the strippers. After spending time dancing, Tommy drives home during sunset. At the start of night, he rests.

After resting until the next morning, Tommy gets ready and finds another asset. He drives to Viceport and purchases one of the docks as an asset.

After purchasing, Tommy enters one of the boats in the docks. The objective of the mission is to collect 26 packages located across the waterways of Vice City within two and a half hours. The countdown timer begins once the player enters either boat. Collecting all 26 packages and returning to the Boatyard within the limit completes the mission.

After the first race, Tommy decides not to start another race until after he retires from the main job. He then takes a break and drives to the ice cream depot.

After purchasing the company for $20,000, Tommy Vercetti learns from the previous owner, Maude Hanson, that the company is actually a front, and the "ice cream" sold is actually drugs. Seeing the opportunity in this, Tommy takes one of the company's ice cream vans and starts the job. After distribution, Tommy rests for the night.

Chapter 7

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready for the next job. However, he has to purchase another asset. He purchases the Prawn Island studio.

As Steve Scott is filming, Tommy enters the scene and is surprised and angered at the props that were going to be in the film, Steve at first tries to kick Tommy out of the studios but once he learns that Tommy is the new owner and proposes to make him rich, he changes his mind. Tommy wants talent in the film and heads to a building in Downtown to meet up with Candy Suxxx. Once there, her agent tells Tommy that he owns her and doesn't want to let her go. Tommy chases down the agent as his cronies attack Tommy. Once the agent is killed, Tommy picks up Candy and heads to a Well Stacked Pizza in Downtown to pick up Mercedes Cortez. All three head to the studio. From there, Tommy takes a break.

After break, Tommy spends time looking for more vehicles for the Sunshine Autos garage list. He stores more vehicles and checks the list. After checking more vehicles off the list, he is done for the day. He returns home and rests for the night.

After the next morning begins, Tommy wakes up and gets ready to return to the studio. He drives to the film studio in Prawn Island to begin the job.

Tommy Vercetti stops at the InterGlobal Films studio to learn of the upcoming film's progress. Steve Scott, the film's director, tells him that actresses Candy Suxxx and Mercedes Cortez have been brilliant and that they're preparing to film the boat scenes tomorrow, with Vercetti reminding Scott that there is to be no giant sharks in the film. Vercetti asks if Scott has printed the promotional leaflets but hears that they are not allowed to distribute them as people are "unimaginative". Vercetti tells Scott that he has his plans and enters a Skimmer parked on the water by the studio. Vercetti then flies across Vice City's main island Downtown, Little Haiti, Little Havana, Escobar International Airport and Viceport districts, dropping the promotional leaflets across various parts of the Vice City Mainland.

After the only main job for the day, Tommy finds out that someone stole his previous car, so he takes the skimmer instead of stealing another car. He flies toward the runway and lands on one of them at Escobar International Airport. Because the plane is a skimmer and lacks wheels, the plane scratches the runway, but Tommy is able to taxi the skimmer into one of the airport gates. He exits the skimmer and makes his way to Sunshine Autos in order to get another car. From there, he drives back home with the new car and rests for the night.

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready to return to the studio. He packs up his inventory and begins driving to the studio for work.

Congressman Alex Shrub wants to win the next election by supporting restrictions on the porn film industry. As this is bad for InterGlobal Films, Tommy wants to follow Candy Suxxx to Shrub. Tommy follows Candy to a penthouse in Vice Point. Candy enters the penthouse to meet with Shrub while Tommy enters the Vice Point Langer across the street.

With Shrub in his most embarrassing and politically damaging outfit, Tommy manages to take photos of him with a camera from a good vantage point in the hotel. Shrub's guards see this and dispatch the FBI to take down Tommy and his camera. Tommy manages to return safely to the studio and plans to use the pictures for blackmailing. After that, his job is done, so he takes a break with a pizza lunch and buys weapons at Ammu-Nation.

Gener Guzman

After break, Tommy continues to work for Sunshine Autos and manages to find more cars to store in the garage. He then takes another break for the night and then returns to spend the next morning finishing the checklist and the asset for Sunshine Autos. After completing the Sunshine Autos asset, Tommy takes a break and then goes to the studio.

To help promote the launch of the new film, the studio needs a big stunt. Steve reminisces how back in the day there were gala events, limos and searchlights. Tommy thinks of an idea and needs to find a big searchlight Downtown and adjusts it to reflect an image to a building across the road. Tommy runs to the guard booth and hops onto a PCJ-600, and drives towards an office building in Downtown. He drives up the stairs to the lower floor, and enters the elevator there. There will be a small cutscene and then Tommy drives through the window, keeping towards the right edge (towards the man standing in front of the window) and follows the blips until he reaches the searchlight. He hops off the bike, walks towards the spotlight and enters another light inside and shines it on a building, showing a picture of Candy Suxxx's breasts with the name Suxxx underneath them. After this job, the asset is complete.

As a result, Tommy is rewarded with lots of money and then becomes so excited for getting close to retirement. Last, he returns home and rests at night.

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready to go to Print Works, even though he completed the asset earlier. He has one more thing to do before he is done with the main job.

Sonny is getting impatient with Tommy since he never paid him the money which was lost during the drug deal. He is also angry that he has cut off all his connections with him. Due to this he sends members of his family to attempt to tax Tommy's various business setups. After hearing that trouble is going down in the Print Works from a desperate Ken Rosenberg, Tommy heads to the Print Works only to find an injured Earnest Kelly. Earnest tells Tommy that some Forelli members came to take their cut for Sonny. Angered by this, Tommy orders the print workers to take Earnest to hospital while he goes to take care of the problem. Afterwards, Tommy finds Sonny's goons taxing his business and kills them.

After the morning job, Tommy takes his break at home and plans on what to do next. He plans on preparing for the final job by gearing up just like the final boss of a game.

After break, Tommy goes to Downtown Ammu-Nation and tests his skills there. He then purchases ammo of the stronger guns and then goes to Phil's place in Little Haiti to buy the strongest guns possible that includes a rocket launcher, detonator, minigun, etc. The minigun is basically a strong gun that is capable of destroying lives and vehicles super quickly.

After gearing up fully with armor and almost everything, Tommy returns home and prepares for the night. Once at home, he waits for the night to begin and then rests.

Tommy wakes up, only to find that the work location is at the mansion. He goes to work at the main office upstairs in the office and then begins work. He is then prepared for the final job with everything good. That means he is ready to finish the job once and for all.

After failing to forcibly tax Tommy's businesses, Forelli Crime Family Don Sonny Forelli is heading to Vice City from Liberty City in order to deal with Tommy in person and reclaim his "cut". Tommy, informed of Sonny's impending visit by Ken and Lance, sets aside $3 million of counterfeit cash in an attempt to placate Sonny.

Sonny arrives at Tommy's mansion along with several Forelli Family members. As Tommy prepares to give Sonny the counterfeit cash, Lance openly betrays Tommy, citing "business" as his motivation. Sonny confronts Tommy over his attempt to placate him with counterfeit cash. Tommy, still reeling from Lance's betrayal, replies that he "just wanted to piss you off before I kill you". This causes Tommy to try killing Lance.

This sparks a huge gunfight within the mansion. Lance flees to the mansion roof, while Tommy kills several Forelli Family members attempting to steal money from the mansion's safe. After killing several members, Tommy heads to the roof where he confronts and kills Lance.

After killing Lance, Tommy heads back to the mansion's foyer, where Sonny confirms Tommy's suspicion that the incident fifteen years earlier which resulted in Tommy being sent to prison for killing eleven men (after being sent to kill only one) was indeed an ambush orchestrated by Sonny. Now after his revenge, Tommy kills Sonny's guards before finally killing Sonny. This causes the main job to finally be over before moving onto the next life.

After the shootout, Ken reappears and asks Tommy what happened, with Tommy explaining that he had a "disagreement with a business associate". Tommy laments Lance's betrayal, before telling Ken that they won't be having anymore trouble from "up north". As Tommy announces that he is in charge, he ends the mission by telling Ken that "this could be the beginning of a beautiful business relationship". Finally, Tommy is done for the day.

As a reward for completing the main job in Vice City, Tommy gets to take a break in his mansion and relax there. He waits for the night to begin. At the start of night, he rests.

Chapter 8

Tommy wakes up in the first day of “retirement” and gets ready for the next job in order to fully complete all of his tasks and hobbies before he can be able to take the city over. He makes a plan on what to do next. First, the plan is to go to Sunshine Autos and finish all of the races to become the winner of all. During most of the races during the day, Tommy should win the Hotring, Bloodring, and Dirtring events at the stadium located downtown.

Tommy exits the house and gets in his car in the garage. He then exits the mansion and eventually Starfish Island. He then turns left on Bayshore Avenue in Little Havana and then turns right to the road leading to the airport. From there, he makes another right turn and then the final right turn into Sunshine Autos. He parks his car in the garage and trades in for the fast car.

Tommy drives the fast car near the outdated map where Vice Street Racer should begin. He decides to choose the smaller races first before the bigger races. He first picks Terminal Velocity and then is directed to start the race near the airport. From there, he meets the other races and then begins racing around the airport with careful driving with airport traffic.

During the race, Tommy moves around the traffic and is often slow on the road or fast on the sidewalk with little or no pedestrians. Eventually, he wins the first race of the day.

The race was short, so Tommy returned to the map and began another race. This time, he is racing along Ocean Drive in Ocean and Washington Beaches. From there, he has to take a long drive to the start of the race and then begin racing. The race begins, and the other cars are reckless driving, sometimes crashing into traffic and running over pedestrians. Tommy on the other hand races safely around as fast as he can and sometimes goes slow when there is traffic around, so the car is less likely to be damaged so much. Eventually, Tommy wins the race for Ocean Drive and then decides to take a break in the middle of the day near the finish line.

After taking a break near the finish line, Tommy drives back to the Sunshine Autos and into the repair garage, since his race car suffers minor damages from minor crashes either from accidents or intentionally to other racers. From there, he picks another type of race.

The race is bigger than the two races done so far today and will probably take well into the afternoon to finish the race. Tommy starts another race and then goes to start in Little Havana. The race goes in Little Havana and Little Haiti, the poorest place in Vice City. When racing in Little Haiti, the Haitians attempt to attack, but the car is too fast. Eventually, Tommy wins the race. After winning, he returns to Sunshine Autos and transfers into his car.

After switching cars, Tommy goes through Bayshore Avenue during rush hour. However, the traffic flow is more like going away from downtown, so he drives like normal towards downtown. By the time he goes all the way downtown, rush hour is over. He finds a parking space around the stadium. He parks near the helipad and then walks to the stadium.

By 20:00, the event starts, so Tommy gets inside. The first event is the Hotring. Inside the stadium, the fans are excited, and the racers are ready to begin racing in the stadium. Tommy is so excited to win the race since he has enough practice during the day.

Tommy wins the race because he already has enough practice and then leads the race before causing a massive crash pileup to the other racers behind. After finishing the racing event, Tommy goes to a different safehouse downtown and then sleeps for the night. Meanwhile, other racers have already lost the race and all got involved in the crash earlier.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Tommy wakes up once again and then gets ready for another day of racing. Just like yesterday, he decides to go racing once again and continue where he left off. Not only that but at night go to a stadium and start a different kind of event over there. This time, the races are going to be much bigger, so there would be only room for two races. Additionally, the races have to be avoided during the two rush hours, so the races have to begin during the work hours.

Tommy gets ready from the downtown safehouse and then uses the rush hour to head to Sunshine Autos. His direction is not as heavy as the direction going downtown, so he can drive faster. After about an hour, he arrives at Sunshine Autos and then into the Vice Street Race map where he picks the Capital Cruise for the morning and then the Tour in the afternoon.

Tommy then goes to Vice Beach at the other side in order to begin the race. From there, he races around the beach places and southern Vice Point. He drives carefully and fast way ahead of the other reckless racers. After winning the race, he takes a long drive back to Sunshine Autos where he takes a break inside the showroom building.

After taking a break, Tommy returns to the race and then goes to the starting location in northern Washington Beach. From there, he starts in last place and ramps up to first place by the middle of the race. He drives carefully and then continues to race around Vice Point before finishing the race. After that, Tommy returns to Sunshine Autos.

After returning, Tommy switches into a civilian car and then drives back downtown to go to the stadium. He arrives early, so he decides to wait until 20:00 and explore the place around. At 20:00, the Bloodring event begins. Tommy manages to win the event after an hour of the event with other cars attempting to crash and prevent Tommy from winning. Finally, Tommy returns to a safehouse in downtown where he rests for the night.

Gener Guzman

Tommy gets ready the next day and begins preparing for the final and last race of the Vice Street Racers. He goes downstairs and into the garage where he drives all the way to Sunshine Autos to begin the race. The drive to the race is quick, and Tommy parks the car inside one of the garages before taking the race car and selecting the V.C. Endurance, a final race around the entire city. After selecting, Tommy goes to the starting line.

Tommy starts racing near Sunshine Autos and then begins going south before going to the bridge leading to Vice Beach. After passing Washington Mall and the hospital, Tommy drives faster and passes most of the other reckless racers who crash into random vehicles and often kill nearby pedestrians, risking themselves getting chased by the cops.

By the time the race passes into Vice Point, Tommy leads the race and drives faster and is more careful not to hit anything around the race. He passes Prawn Island and downtown where he watches at the back and sees no other racers and just ordinary traffic. Eventually, the race goes into Little Haiti where the Haitians almost make Tommy's race car have a flat tire and may have accidentally made other racers have a flat tire. Finally, the race goes through Little Havana and south of that, back to the finish line where Tommy wins.

After the race, Tommy takes a break slightly into the afternoon while inside the car showroom. From there, he is rewarded with various vehicles, including a monster truck with its wheels having big tires. He is also rewarded with a sentinel car inside the showroom as well as another stock race car and then several more in the garages.

During rush hour, Tommy uses the new monster truck and breaks out of the showroom in order to make his way back downtown. He drives on the left side of the road this time which is where the incoming traffic is heading towards the truck. Tommy avoids big vehicles like trucks and some buses and only runs over smaller vehicles. He runs over lots of traffic and local poor cars in the poorer sections of Vice City. By the time the traffic has been run over by the big truck wheels, they suffer damage from the top and even some sides, and some of the traffic has even flipped over before exploding and causing a deadly chain reaction.

By the time Tommy parks his new monster truck in the big garage in the downtown safehouse, he walks to the stadium and arrives in time for the Dirting event. This event starts at 20:00 along with the other two events won and involves riding an off road motorcycle and completing the course. Tommy rides the Sanchez motorcycle and uses ramps and loops as well as other courses. After a few hours, he wins the course.

Tommy then walks back home and goes upstairs into the room to plan what to do next. He then rests for the night while planning for tomorrow.

Tommy wakes up the next day to find himself a free day. That means he gets to do anything he wants, but he has not completed all of his goals just yet. He has to find something he needs to complete before all of his other jobs are done. He continues to plan on what to do next if there's another race to complete or if there's another course that needs to go on. He has to find out what tasks he needs to get done as he explores Vice City.

Because the downtown safehouse has a helicopter at the roof, Tommy goes down the stairs and explores the front of the safehouse. He then notices the traffic downtown there. Once rush hour begins, Tommy goes to the roof and into the helipad.

Tommy then goes to the helicopter on the roof and then begins flying up. The plan is to spend the whole day exploring Vice City and determine what tasks he needs to get done that he may have forgotten. He begins the tour by exploring downtown first. The downtown has no tasks but interesting places to see. Past that is Little Haiti and takes a tour to go to a low enough altitude but still high that pistols cannot reach and damage the helicopter. Once in Little Haiti, he spots just a different type of helicopter, the sparrow. The sparrow is compatible with not only landing on the ground but also floating on water. This gets Tommy attention that he can do a job with the sparrow by going through the checkpoints he needs to.

Tommy then continues to practice with the helicopter by flying over Little Havana and Escobar International Airport as well as Viceport where there are no tasks for him to do. That begins to change once he spots another task on the roof on an Ocean Beach building. This is where he plans to begin the chopper checkpoint tomorrow.

Tommy eventually lands at the beach and takes a break there. He spends half an hour on break before returning to the helicopter and flying.

No tasks have been spotted in Washington Beach, but Tommy has spotted a sparrow checkpoint location in the apartment courtyard in Vice Point near the safehouse closest to the Leaf Links golf course. No other tasks have been spotted near the North Point Mall as well as the three islands between Vice Beach and Vice City Mainland.

Changes begin to happen once Tommy arrives back in downtown. In the building where he used to help film before killing Sonny, another sparrow has been spotted. Tommy spots four chopper checkpoint tasks he needs to do. He makes the plan on the jobs in order, so he moves his resting place from the downtown safehouse to the mansion.

At the mansion in Starfish Island, Tommy prepares to rest there finally. He finalizes the plan before resting. At the beginning of the night, he rests.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Once Tommy wakes up in his mansion, he gets ready to start the chopper checkpoint missions with the first location being in Ocean Beach. Right after he is ready, he has a problem of how to get there. The sparrow in Ocean Beach is located high enough that no one can ever get to the roof, so Tommy either has to do the hard way like a motorcycle stunt up the roof or an easier way is to fly the helicopter. Luckily, there is a helicopter on the mansion roof.

Using the mansion roof, Tommy makes his way there. This is the roof where he killed Lance Vance during the final missions earlier. Instead, Tommy goes on the helicopter and flies to Ocean Beach. From there, he lands on the roof near the sparrow and gets on the sparrow.

Once Tommy gets on the sparrow, he flies up the skies and then tours more of Vice City by going through the checkpoints he thinks he is going through. The checkpoints are imaginary, meaning they are not visible to anyone. Tommy continues to go through the checkpoints in Ocean Beach. He continues to explore until the final checkpoint is reached near the apartment.

After reaching the apartment, Tommy lands the helicopter on the roof of an apartment and goes there. In a random apartment, the door is somehow open, so Tommy decides to take a look inside. The apartment has two rooms that are unlocked while the rest of the rooms are locked. The only unlocked rooms are the front bedroom and the bathroom.

Inside the apartment room seems like a recent crime there. In the bedroom, there is a chair that contains lots of drugs. Meanwhile in the bathroom, both the chainsaw and the blood stain is found, meaning there is evidence that someone used a chainsaw to kill an enemy. Tommy takes the chainsaw and replaces a melee weapon with it before the break is over.

After the break is over, Tommy steals a random old car, which is the car that is owned by a driver that could be killed by a chainsaw in the bathroom. Tommy takes the car and drives to a

Gener Guzman

Vice Point apartment near the safehouse the closest to Leaf Links golf course. From there, he goes to the courtyard and spots a sparrow being parked there where he gets on it.

After getting on the next sparrow, Tommy starts another chopper checkpoint. He flies to another set of imaginary checkpoints where he explores many places in Vice Point. He continues to go through the Vice Point checkpoints until the final checkpoint near the starting place. After that, he decides to land the helicopter on a nearby helipad near the small Leaf Links bridge.

At the dock near the Leaf Links small bridge, Tommy spots a small yacht and gets on it. He sails the boat and explores the seas while exploring surrounding places including the golf course and places along the west coast of Vice Beach. He continues to sail until he reaches Starfish Island. From there, he docks the boat at the private port at Tommy's mansion. Last, Tommy makes his way into the mansion before reaching the main room and resting at night.

Tommy wakes up the next day and plans on resuming the chopper checkpoint. He is in the middle of the course and has completed all of the courses on Vice Beach. However, there are two chopper checkpoints left on the Vice City Mainland. He has to complete the course in Little Haiti and downtown. The problem in Little Haiti is that the roof is hard to reach, and the Haitians are currently hostile, making transportation worse unless a helicopter is used.

Because of the Little Haiti hazards, Tommy goes back to the roof and into the helicopter. He flies the helicopter above Starfish Island and into Vice City Mainland. He goes directly to the sparrow on the roof and lands on the roof before entering the sparrow to begin the course.

Once at the chopper checkpoint, Tommy controls the sparrow and follows the imaginary chopper checkpoints in both Little Haiti and Little Havana. However, the checkpoints are low enough in Little Haiti that the sparrow can be shot by the Haitians. At first, there were no gangs near the checkpoints. As the sparrow passes through Print Works, the nearby gangs shoot at the sparrow, but the sparrow quickly enters Little Havana. From there, Tommy does not have to worry about the hazards in Little Havana. After returning back to Little Haiti, the checkpoints are even lower near the ground. By the time the course is over, the sparrow suffers damage.

After completing three out of four courses in total, Tommy braves himself into going to a pizza restaurant. The pizza restaurant in Little Haiti is so unique to the fact that it has arcade machines there. Tommy fights a group of Haitian gang members and gets shot by the pistol. During lunch though, Tommy heals by eating pizza and listening to the arcade music.

After lunch, Tommy exits the pizza restaurant and steals a Haitian car and then goes downtown in order to finish the last course. By the time Tommy exits Little Haiti, the stolen car already has a flat tire. However, Tommy parks the car with the flat tire downtown.

After parking the damaged car, Tommy walks to the sparrow. The sparrow in downtown is easy to get to unlike Ocean Beach and Little Haiti. From there, Tommy gets on the sparrow and begins the last course in Vice City. He begins the downtown course and goes through the imaginary checkpoints located throughout downtown. Many of the checkpoints are near the ground, but some of the checkpoints are also high near the skyscrapers of Vice City. The course is a long course that tours to key places in downtown and overall Vice City.

After completing the downtown course, Tommy is rewarded with enough time to explore the office and finds himself exploring the downtown area and the place where he used to be a part of filming earlier. After exploring the office downtown, Tommy returns back to the mansion in Starfish Island. He makes a plan for the next few days and then rests at night.

Gener Guzman

After waking up, Tommy gets ready for another set of courses. This time, he has to do another type of vehicle course. He already did the sparrow checkpoints, the racing, and the stadium events. Now he has to do something else he is thinking of. Even though the next course is fun, he has to do several off-road courses as a part of his checklist before he can be able to get rewarded with power in order to take over Vice City at the end.

Tommy this time locates where the off-road missions can be located. He actually does not know where the courses are located so far, or he forgets where they are once they have been spotted since he moved into Vice City. Anyways, he makes a plan to find all locations by driving around the place. The first place to explore and find is Ocean Beach and make way up north into Vice Point, downtown, and go south in the mainland back to the airport. After making this plan, Tommy leaves the mansion and goes to Ocean Beach.

Once at Ocean Beach, Tommy starts with the southernmost point and begins exploring the beach for potential off-road courses he can take. No courses have been found. Again, he goes to several more places until he finds a course he can take located at the parking garage. This is the same parking garage when he went to Rafael's clothing store to dress up for the boat party on the second day of Tommy just moving into Vice City. Even though Tommy remembers the garage, he forgets that there is a course he can take because this is the driving course where a student driver takes place for those living in the Vice Beach side.

After spotting the course, Tommy continues north and spots no course just yet until he finds a sports motorcycle near the Washington Beach police station at a beach Vice Point hotel. Past that, he spots no offroad courses until he takes a break. During break, Tommy makes his way into the pizza place in Vice Point and spends his break there. After break, he makes his way north well into Vice Point. So far in Vice Point, there are no offroad courses, even at the mostly empty beaches which is the best place to take an off road course.

After going through Vice Point, Tommy makes his way into Prawn Island and spots no offroad courses there. He then enters downtown and then wanders around looking for a course. In the southern portion of downtown, there are no courses. The northern portion on the other hand contains the rest of the courses Tommy can take.

After spotting the rest of the courses downtown, Tommy goes south to look for more extra offroad courses there. Due to hazards in Little Haiti and poor places in Little Havana, there are no courses found. Even at the place south of Little Havana where there is a best spot for the course near Sunshine Autos, there are no courses. Same applies for the airport and the city port. After driving around, Tommy returns home and rests for the night.

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready to begin all four off road courses. He makes a plan on doing the ones at Vice Beach first with the very first one being the one at the parking garage in Ocean Beach and the second driving the PCJ motorcycle around southern Vice Beach. The afternoon courses are going to take place in one location downtown. These are all of the courses that Tommy found yesterday, so this is the final plan.

After becoming ready for the off road courses, Tommy drives to the parking garage in Ocean Beach. From there, he enters the stallion car and begins the course. The course is about reaching a checkpoint without hitting the cones. Tommy completes the course in less than an hour by driving at the top of the parking garage in all checkpoints. After that, he passes and is rewarded $200. From there, he returns to his normal car and drives to the next course. The next course is located offroad, but Tommy decides to park either at the Malibu Club or the police station. Because the police station is closer, Tommy parks there and walks.

Once Tommy arrives at the motorcycle, he gets on it and begins the course. The course involves speeding in the alleyway west of Ocean Drive and going through the ramps there. The course also revolves around Ocean Beach. Eventually, the course ends with a final jump and a final checkpoint near the sparrow on top of a visited apartment.

After completing the second course, Tommy goes back to the apartment and takes a break there, while seeing the blood stain once again in the bathroom. After break, he takes a very long drive up north to the dirt course in the north downtown.

However, Tommy parks his car at the downtown safehouse and then walks to the dirt course there. This is where he will spend the afternoon.

The third course of the day and the first course in the dirt track is riding the Sanchez dirt bike and using the dirt. Tommy rides the motorcycle and goes through imaginary checkpoints within the dirt course for several more hours. He keeps going through more checkpoints until he completes the course with the reward of $100. After completing the course, Tommy takes an afternoon break from the course before resuming.

After the break, Tommy goes onto the next course which involves driving an SUV that has a risk of flipping over and exploding. After carefully completing the course, Tommy flips over the SUV, and the SUV explodes. After the explosion, Tommy returns to one of his safehouses and makes a plan for the upcoming days. Last, he rests at night.

Chapter 9

Tommy wakes up the next day and gets ready to continue working towards his goal. He plans on spending the morning working on the RC races. There are two locations to go to. One is located on the top of the parking lot where the Top Fun van is. The Top Fun van is where most of the toys are deployed when used. The other Top Fun location is in a Vice Point beach. The toys in North Point Mall are the Baron plane while the toys on the beach are the Bandit race car.

Once Tommy is ready to go, he drives to North Point Mall and parks near the van. From there, he enters the van quickly and begins the RC Baron race. It begins in the parking garage.

The Baron race begins, and Tommy controls the plane in a different way than the three other planes. Plus there are checkpoints to go through, so this makes the side mission easier to go and win. The other three planes begin to catch up but are still behind. Plus there is always a right to self destroy the plane when losing is more likely. However, this is not happening right now, so the race continues on. The plane continues to fly above the streets of Vice Point throughout the rest of the morning. Finally, the race is over, and the mission passes with a $100 reward.

Tommy then enters the North Point Mall and explores it for the rest of the morning. This is where the middle of the day happens. Since there is no fighting yet, there is no need to eat. The only reason to eat is when Tommy has less than 100 health. However, Tommy already has armor to protect himself instead of eating a lot. He then exits the mall and moves to the next mission.

The next mission is similar to the morning but is located in Vice Point Beach. It is close to North Point Mall, and Tommy enters the Vice Point beach track. There, he can see the track on the beach and a Top Fun van parked nearby. This is where the next RC mission is going to start. Tommy enters the van and begins the next RC mission for the afternoon as the next race.

Tommy begins the Bandit race and drives the toy around the track against the other three Bandits who are doing the same. Just like with the Baron race, the Bandit race also sees similar skills due to experience with racing. Halfway through the race, Tommy passes through all other Bandits and goes ahead for a while, ending the race in first place as well as the work for the day.

After the race ends, Tommy drives back to the mansion in Starfish Island since the next RC mission is on the other side of Vice City. The driving involves going through half of the main road of Vice Point and turning right to the bridge to Starfish Island through the hardware store.

Finally, Tommy arrives home and settles down in the mansion. After completing two RC missions, he settles down and gets ready for resting. Last, he goes to his room and rests again.

Tommy wakes up the next morning and gets ready to complete the one RC mission on the other side. There is almost no evidence of how the location of all three Top Fun van locations begins to get known and learned, but the closest reason could be spotted throughout all the main missions. The only Top Fun van that has not been completed yet is located at the airport. The rest of all the plans are unknown since there may or may not be a known length of the last RC mission or so.

Once the plan is complete, Tommy gets to the rooftop instead of the floor. This is for the helicopter trip to the airport. Tommy flies the helicopter from the mansion helipad to the airport. He goes through the river and then quickly lands at the helipad close to the Top Fun van.

After exiting the helicopter, Tommy enters the van for one last time and finds out that the toy is the Raider helicopter. This RC mission is the longest one of all and can take the whole day to complete. This is because the course goes through all parts of the airport where the planes are stored and also where they take off. The name of the mission is RC Raider Pickup. However, this mission is not a race but rather going through all the assigned checkpoints without damage.

The first portion of the RC mission is to go through all the checkpoints without so much damage to destroy the toy. As a result, the Raider flies a lot slowly but is careful to go through all the checkpoints. The first portion takes at least four hours to complete, and there is almost a lack of damage to the helicopter. Eventually, the first half of the RC mission is complete for a break.

Tommy then explores the airport as a break and finds some energy to take. He then goes around the airport and makes sure he knows the difference between restricted and open areas.

After a break, Tommy returns to the van and restarts the mission again. This time, there is now a time limit that Tommy has created in the morning. The goal is to both beat the time and go through all the checkpoints without destroying the toy. Damage is allowed just for a little bit.

The second RC mission of the day begins with Tommy rushing through the first stop. The next one is much faster but more likely to destroy the toy. This is because the toy is damaged just a little bit. There is not much time left since not beating the time results in Tommy going back to the mansion past bedtime. Plus the helicopter to go home may or may not be there, depending on if someone steals it or not. Most likely, the helicopter is stolen, but a spare helicopter may help with the trip back home. Tommy continues to beat the time as the toy gets more damaged. As the mission comes close to an end, the toy goes through the last few checkpoints and is experienced with all of them the second time. This ends the mission with a pass as Tommy gets in a hurry.

Eventually, Tommy goes back home but may have a hard time landing the helicopter as there may be another helicopter that seems to be spawned somehow. Last, he goes in and rests.

Gener Guzman

Tommy wakes up the next morning for another set of vehicle missions. The easier side mission is the taxi. Plus a taxi company might have been purchased though. The plan is not just for today but is also for all the other days as well. After the taxi job, the next job is delivering pizzas. Then, the three emergency vehicle missions come up: Paramedic with the ambulance, Firefighter with the fire truck, and vigilante with various police vehicles depending on the level of the job.

Once Tommy is ready to go, he drives to the Kaufman Cabs garage in Little Haiti. Before entering the job, he drives as fast as he can around Haitians, which means the gang members in Little Haiti, to avoid getting a flat tire. Finally, Tommy arrives at the garage and begins work.

Tommy enters the Zebra Cabbie and starts the side mission. He picks up various fares and takes them to various places in the Vice City Mainland. This ranges from Downtown all the way to the airport. Plus there are also places in between, which are commonly important in some way due to their appearance in at least one main mission that was completed in the first seven weeks.

For each round, Tommy is given minutes to find a fare around. He picks up and drives to the fare's destination that depends on how far it is. It ranges from only ten minutes to the closest destination all the way to two hours when a destination is at the other side of the map. However, nobody ever wants to cross the river that separates Vice Beach from the mainland so far.

On average, Tommy completes at least five fares a day and earns more than $1200. That means the rate to complete the whole job is 100 fares in twenty days. However, Tommy can take six or even ten passengers a day, meaning it must take at least two weeks to complete the whole taxi job. Once Tommy is done with the taxi job, he finds out what his next job is all about.

The next side mission is Pizza Boy. This involves driving the motorcycle with the same name and delivering pizzas to places surrounding the Well Stacked Pizza parlor. There are ten levels that need to be completed to be done with the job overall. Each level adds more work to both the pizza and the customer who wants it, while the time limit remains the same. There are also meanings of how the Pizza Boy side mission should start and where to start from.

The first pizza restaurant Tommy goes to is in Vice Point. He hops into the motorcycle to begin Pizza Boy. He delivers only one pizza to one customer while taking time to be safe. There is no need to rush yet since this is the first level. The customer may be near the restaurant.

Also, Tommy must have one day to complete Pizza Boy, with about 55 pizzas delivered in one attempt and one day. This may or may not be true. Sometimes, pizzas may be picked up at the pizza parlor and then delivered to the customers. There can only be six pizzas at a time.

Once the Pizza Boy mission is complete, Tommy returns back home to his mansion and thinks about what his next job is about to be. Last, he goes to his room and rests for the night.

Tommy gets up and prepares for the next set of side missions. These are known as the emergency vehicle missions with a lot of plans going on in the first half of the early morning before sunrise. After a hard time planning, the order is chosen: Paramedic, Vigilante, and Firefighter. Since the Paramedic side mission is first, Tommy is planning to get to the nearest hospital and chooses the location to go first. Despite the nearest hospital being in Little Havana, Ocean Beach is chosen.

Tommy chooses a different way to exit the mansion, which is by boat. However, there are lots of ways to enter the hospital. Either way, he arrives at the Ocean Beach hospital and gets in the ambulance. This begins the first level where the first patient must be picked up and rushed.

The ambulance rushes around Vice Beach and picks up one passenger at a time within the first few levels. It can hold up to three patients at a time, meaning that sometimes the first patient to get picked up needs to wait and experience two more stops before finally being rushed. This is not happening yet but can happen during the second half of the day. During the morning, there is more time since there are fewer patients that need to go into the hospital first. The ambulance also rushes as fast as normal with the sirens but slower than the top speed in order to avoid the crashes. This is because crashing causes the patients to lose more health as well as losing time.

After level six has passed, Tommy is never given a lunch break. Instead, he is required to pass the next six levels, which is much more challenging than the morning with more rush.

In the afternoon, most of the patients may be located far from the hospital. Most of the time, the patients are close enough to the Ocean Beach hospital to continue using the location. It does not mean being around a certain part of Vice City for so much. There is a chance that the patient may be far enough, or multiple patients spread throughout Vice City that the hospital can be changed to a different one. Now Tommy ends up with at least two patients in the second half.

As the Paramedic side mission may be located throughout Vice City, the three patients to be collected may take more time to get rushed and rescued. Starting around level nine, there can be up to three patients for the rest of the side mission, and hospitals to get dropped off are subject to change but not always. Some of the patients may be close enough to get rushed in a short time and get rescued quickly. Finally, Tommy completes level twelve and gets several rewards.

Each level adds a new reward. The first level rewards drivers at $50. The next level after that depends on what level it is at $50. That means the reward for each level calculates $50 times the level squared, meaning the second level goes to $200, and level ten has the $5000 reward.

The other reward Tommy gets is the ability to run back home without being tired. For the whole trip to the nearest safehouse, he runs and sprints all the way before resting for the night.

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Tommy plans on completing the Firefighter side mission. The location to think about could be the one in downtown. The plan for the firefighter mission is unknown until the vehicle has been entered. Since the vehicle has not been entered yet, it is hard to tell. However, there are friends at a different time who might have completed the side missions, so Tommy can learn a lesson from that. The side mission is similar to yesterday but the goal is to clear the scene with fire removal.

Tommy goes to the fire station downtown and gets in the fire truck. From there, he starts the Firefighter side mission and does the first few levels downtown. The first level is the easiest, so Tommy rushes to the fire scene and takes the fire out. The fires are often burning vehicles but not exploding it, unless the time runs out. The first level takes place between the Well Stacked Pizza parlor and the Love Fist building. The second level is located on the northbound street that leads to downtown. This time, the occupants inside the burning vehicles catch fire and is true for levels two and up. On level two, only the driver catches fire, so two fires are removed this time.

The third level is south of downtown and involves one vehicle burning. Once the fire gets removed, two occupants catch fire, but they are all rescued shortly. The fourth level might be the burning vehicle driving around Little Haiti. An added difficulty to the side mission is that driving around a group of Haitians can either damage the fire truck or get thrown out the driver's seat. As the burning vehicle drives around, the fire truck still drives with the siren and shoots water at the target vehicle. After that, the driver flees and catches fire but is quickly rescued from there.

Just like the other vehicle side missions, there is no break. Additionally, the ability to run faster and having full health prevents the need to eat. Instead, the firefighter mission continues.

The middle levels take place in Little Haiti and Little Havana. The fire truck most likely avoids accidents during the first half of the day. As the middle levels take place in the two poor districts in Vice City, there is a lot of violence going on with both the gang and the fire. Near the border of the two poor districts, the Cubans and the Haitians often fight, especially near the Print Works building. Now Tommy gets lots of reports about multiple vehicles catching fire without exploding, blocking some streets. The fire truck quickly arrives at the scene and takes out all the fires from the vehicles. After that, multiple victims catch fire and flee from the scene. They tend to run in different directions, making the time to complete one level longer than ever before.

Finally, the last few levels take place at the airport and the places south of Little Havana. Most likely, the firefighter side mission never crosses into Vice Beach. Tommy tries so hard to take the fire out to all victims as they run in different directions, and some of them drive away.

Once Tommy completes level twelve, he returns back home to the Starfish Island house and gets the reward. He tries to burn himself but fails as a reward. Last, he goes inside and rests.

The Vigilante side mission is considered the most difficult vehicle mission because there are different types of vigilante vehicles. The most simple one is using the police car and starting at the police station in Washington Beach. However, being a police officer only allows nightstick, the melee weapon at level one wanted, and a pistol starting at level two. Using the cheetah or the enforcer allows the micro-SMG to be used while the FBI and the army levels can use SMGs.

Tommy begins the day by going to the Washington Beach police station, inside the locker room. Entering the locker room gives Tommy level two of being wanted but is shortly escaped once he changes his outfit to become the only police officer with darker hair for the day.

Tommy explores the police station for less than an hour and goes to the back, so he enters the police car and begins the vigilante side mission. The first level involves chasing down Ocean

Grand Theft Auto Vice City

Beach to kill the threat, also known as the criminal, with level one method. This involves trying to stop the chase and bust the criminals out. This time, there is no busting or arresting but rather killing the enemies. Tommy kills the level one criminals with the nightstick after stopping them.

Level two is slightly difficult but still easy to complete as Tommy can now use the pistol in addition to the nightstick. The way to complete level two is similar to level one but is finished by shooting the criminals to death. Meanwhile, the police car is much more damaged this time.

Level three may start being more difficult since the criminals can have weapons that are more deadly than the pistol. Tommy continues to work on the vigilante until he becomes tired of fighting with weak sets. This is the time when Tommy has to upgrade to a new set to continue.

The next set is the third set with the cheetah, a fast car, and the micro-SMG Uzi gun. This allows Tommy to quickly move towards the criminals and shoot as long as the criminals' guns are not stronger than the third set. The fourth set is similar but adds the Enforcer SWAT van that allows ramming the criminals enough for them to flee or shoot, but this may not be enough.

The fifth set is different from the previous sets as it only involves the FBI set, which has the FBI Washington or Rancher and the SMG MP5 gun. The MP5 is the upgraded version of the Uzi SMG. Tommy begins the set with the Washington, which is only located in the parking lot downtown. Then, he finishes the set with the common Rancher with a much better performance.

The sixth set is split like the fifth but is also known as the military set. This includes the military truck, which is faster than the FBI Rancher, and the Rhino Tank that is slow but deadly. Once Tommy fails this, the Hunter helicopter is added to finish level twelve of Vigilante.

After completing the Vigilante side mission that takes weeks, Tommy settles down at the safehouse and is almost done with all major and minor missions. Last, he rests for the night.

Gener Guzman

Tommy gets ready for the last few minor missions to go to. The only goal to complete is earning 45 points inside the Ammu-Nation shooting range downtown and other minor goals. These are purchasing all affordable safehouses in Vice City, which is estimated to be seven. Other goals to complete are both robbing all fifteen stores that are easy and collecting everything. This includes the hidden packages at around one hundred, thirty five rampages, and thirty six stunt jumps.

All the work to do to complete almost everything is now listed. The first few goals to get to are mostly in Vice Beach while the last few goals are to be located in Vice City Mainland and possibly Starfish Island. Now Tommy returns to the Washington Beach Office where everything started from the first main mission. Then, he makes more plans on what to do next based on the closest target to get. This includes everything to collect that is planned from the morning.

Since there are seven safehouses that must be purchased, Tommy must have at least about $41500 to make progress. There are actually nine safehouses Tommy can rest at, but two of them are given for free from the main missions. The plan is to rest at all nine safehouses in just more than a week. The concentration of work is planned to be similar to the main missions before.

By area, Tommy begins the second last week of completion in Ocean Beach. The first to look at are the hidden packages. Throughout the morning, Tommy collects the first ten hidden packages, but some of them might have been collected during the main mission weeks. The stunt jumps are completed while driving a sports car throughout Ocean Beach. Finally, rampages that are in Ocean Beach must take at least two days since there are eight of them that last two hours. This is because the rampages last for sixteen hours in two days with the rest being other busy.

After Tommy rests in the Ocean Beach apartment safehouse, he moves to the Washington Beach safehouse and begins his work in the neighborhood. The next ten hidden packages already have been collected either recently or found during the main mission weeks. Unique stunt jumps are completed whenever possible or found throughout the first week to now. Rampages are either done in Ocean Beach or Vice Point, with a total of seventeen rampages in Vice Beach.

Three safehouses are located in Vice Point, meaning Tommy spends at least three days in Vice Point to work on collecting items as well as completing the actions. In terms of robberies, Tommy completes the Bunch of Tools during his Washington Beach days. The first two days in Vice Point is where the three stores have been robbed. The third and last day in Vice Point and in Vice Beach overall is where Tommy robs the four stores in North Point Mall. By the time stores in Vice Beach have been robbed eight times, more than half of all robberies are complete.

The final safehouse to rest in Vice Beach is 3321 Vice Point. It is located northeast of the majority of the whole Vice Beach island and North Point Mall. Last, the second last week ends.

The final week before completion mainly takes place in Vice City Mainland and possibly all the islands in between the major lands of Vice City. The general plan for the last week is living in the last two safehouses downtown. The plan is to live in the Hyman Condo when working downtown and Skumole Shack when working in the rest of Vice City. Most of the work during the last week is planned to take place downtown during the first half while the rest goes into the second half.

By the time Tommy moves downtown, hidden packages in Prawn Island have been taken during the Vice Beach and Vice Point days. Additionally, packages in Leaf Links should be taken when Tommy works in South Vice Point and lives in the Leak Links apartment nearby.

Now hidden packages throughout Starfish Island should have been collected when living in the mansion. That means hidden packages could be collected out of order for two reasons such as the general plan for the last week and some collected while doing the main missions that takes place during the first few weeks of living in Vice City. Stunt Jumps tend to be completed either in order or out of order, depending on the official number and the region to go with.

After collecting nearly everything and robbing two stores downtown, Tommy goes to the Ammu-Nation shooting range and is given a pistol with one hundred rounds. On average, he gets thirty points in the shooting range. By ignoring the closest target, Tommy breaks the record of forty five points, which is enough to make progress and get the reward of faster reload.

The work continues south of downtown but within the Vice City mainland. The flow goes to Little Haiti and then to Little Havana. Multiple hidden packages, unique stunt jumps, and the rampages have been completed. During rampages, Tommy kills multiple enemy gangs such as the Haitians more than all the other rampages most likely. Now there are two areas to work on,

Despite the airport being north of Viceport, Viceport is chosen to be the second last area to work on. Unique stunt jumps are special in this area because of Sunshine Autos and the open land that almost nobody claims. The work continues to the southernmost portion of the docks.

The final area to cover is the airport. Unique stunt jumps are also special because of the runway. This allows better acceleration and top speeds to take place before performing stunts on the ramps after using the runway. All hidden packages are collected at this point. This is true for the robberies, which took place last in Little Havana. The final work to do is the rampage in Fort Baxter Air Base. This involves using the minigun, more deadly than the M4, to kill soldiers.

Chapter 10

Finally, Tommy reaches his own completion, meaning he has rewards to get. There are rewards that are noticed right at the start. The next morning after reaching completion, the first to notice the reward is doubling maximum health from one hundred to two hundred. This is true for the body armor also, meaning it now takes 400 damage to be dead or wasted. The plan is also for the next four days or weeks, depending on how Tommy celebrates. Celebration is also planned.

This type of celebration is really not a normal one as it is planned to involve chaos going around Vice City. Although there is another friend who almost plans on taking over the city two years ago, Tommy might learn the lesson and attempt to take over in a better way than before.

Of course, everything has to start as normal as possible. Tommy explores parts of the city as the first step before other actions kick in. For example, he first enters the police station to get the cop outfit. He does the same steps to begin Vigilante but calls this event the free Vigilante. He even makes his own set of levels in order to try taking over the city because of feeling crazy.

The reason why Tommy feels crazy is when he enters a vehicle like the police car as the first, the beginning of the drive is not normal since the strength of vehicles Tommy drives is two times stronger than before completing a set of missions, reminders, etc called the game 100%.

Before moving onto the interesting parts of completion celebration and freedom, Tommy takes a break for the first time in a while. This should be the last break before energy kicks in.

After the last break is over, Tommy goes to Ammu-Nation and gets the ability to refill all of the ammo. As a normal police officer, Tommy buys the pistol and explores Ocean Beach. The action begins on the way to Ocean View Hotel where Tommy stops and uses the nightstick where it is not normal. Nobody sees police officers hitting random people with the nightstick. As a level one plan, Tommy goes to the lighthouse, explores it, and uses the nightstick against the random people for almost no reason except generally being bad. This happens throughout the beach.

Once Tommy feels like going to level two of free vigilante, the difference is now using a pistol against random people in public locations. Tommy often patrols Washington Beach and at least some portions of Vice Point to stop and kill random pedestrians with the pistol. Level three is similar to level two but now involves the police helicopter, which may be found downtown. The problem is that these types of actions either happen before vacation or in the middle of it.

After either planning or executing this type of action for the first half, Tommy returns to his mansion and sees more rewards. Before examining the rewards, he rests for the night.

More rewards of 100% completion comes in as Tommy gets ready for the next few days of being on vacation. The last two or three rewards of completing the basic career is the ability to recruit up to three bodyguards from the Vercetti Estate for $2000 each, meaning the full cost is $6000. The other reward that may or may not be the last is the Frankie outfit. The Frankie outfit says, "I completed Vice City and all I got was this lousy T-Shirt". Finally, a trophy can be included.

After examining the rewards, Tommy begins pretending. He goes to the airport and into the main terminal like normal. The Admiral, Tommy's usual car, should be parked at Sunshine Autos and pretend about preparing for car rental. Tommy then steals from Sunshine Autos to go.

At the airport, Tommy begins at the gate and pretends to go to the other gate to trick on picking up an imaginary friend around. During the process, he goes downstairs and explores the front of the airport. All weapons are taken away and are located at the front with the guards. The first floor of the airport contains the check in at the back, several information booths about Vice City and car rental information as well as phone booths. The security checkpoints are located at the front of the airport. Tommy exits the right door for him and picks up the weapons. He then pretends to ride the taxi to trick the driver and then steals the taxi or in rare attempts, a bus.

Tommy eventually arrives at Sunshine Autos and picks up his Admiral. He explores the property before driving to Ocean Beach. He first explores the office near Washington Mall and then explores the actual beach. The last step is to check into the Ocean View Hotel and sleep.

The second day of the pretend vacation involves Tommy exploring more parts of the city. There is no known average of exploring Vice City as it all depends on the details to explore. The vacation time can be short and explore the overview or almost forever but exploring in detail. As Tommy has been in Vice City for months, the chosen method is detailed. Vice Beach is explored from south to north, which also includes the two northern islands before going downtown.

Vice City Mainland is explored from north to south, except for the last part where plans involve exploring Viceport before the airport. Tommy explores downtown for days and goes to Little Haiti just south of it. Next up is Little Havana, which only takes two days to explore the poor areas of Vice City. Viceport also includes Sunshine Autos and places between the docks and the airport. Tommy explores the docks in detail before returning to the airport to stop pretending.

The only place not to be explored during the pretend weeks is the Fort Baxter Air Base as it acts like a restricted area, even when passing by the base. Soldiers often shoot nearby traffic if they look like they are not working. The roads to the base are not closed, so the M4 rifles cause the normal traffic of either being killed quickly or exploding. Last, Tommy goes home to rest.

Gener Guzman

After exploring Vice City to examine the details of it before taking over, Tommy has lots of plans to try taking over. The first gradual step must involve dressing as a police officer and pretend to work as one before taking action. The level system involves going from being a police officer to more like a soldier at the top. As the plans become crazy, Tommy prepares to fight against all of the police officers and soldiers. The Rhino Tank and Hunter Helicopter are important for this.

The first round is trying to be silent and constantly escaping the police. Instead of being on one part of Vice City, the round goes around the whole city. Tommy continues to fight against random pedestrians and crash into traffic in several places. Not only that but also the adventure continues into Prawn Island. On Prawn Island, Tommy goes to the studio and finds a truck with a ramp on top of it. This is an interesting truck for several reasons as it is capable of flipping.

Once Tommy gets on the truck, he takes it to several locations either one day or multiple days throughout. He drives the truck on major roads and often blocks traffic near intersections to mess around. The truck backs up into traffic where the sides of the ramp flips multiple vehicles over. As a result, the flipped vehicle explodes and explodes other nearby vehicles if not heavily damaged. Sometimes, drivers and some passengers do not care about being on fire and often get killed for being too close to the explosion. This happens throughout Vice City without getting the cops attention for some reason. Another similar but minor action involves using multiple combat items to try killing people quickly or exploding multiple vehicles, and this gives a police report.

Now there are several plans Tommy can do to try taking over without having to fight the police, the SWAT, the FBI, and the army. One plan is driving the tank and ramming the traffic.

Tommy goes with the one plan and begins using the tank to pretend that everyone nearby is wanted at level six. Using the MP5s and M4s to kill random people gives Tommy the wanted level for sure, so the best way is to crash. Shooting with the tank cannon may also give a wanted level as well, so the only way is to crash. Tommy continues to drive the tank and crash into more traffic throughout Vice City. He lightly crashes, which does nothing. As soon as the tank crashes into a vehicle hard enough, it explodes. This does not apply to other tanks though for later.

The only free vehicle mission Tommy keeps forgetting is the bus. This involves Tommy driving the coach around, as the other bus model does not offer free missions. Routes are freely created, and there are bus stops throughout the city. People nearby tend to go to the bus stop and get on the coach, awarding Tommy five dollars each. For all days of the free mission, passengers do not get off the bus, except when it is parked in the garage for some reason. This free mission saves Vice City at some point because there are no standard transit systems and no rail transit in Vice City. However, Tommy returns to a safehouse and spends the last night before moving on.

For the last time, Tommy begins to awaken with boss-like powers and plans on trying to take over Vice City once and for all. However, this is going to cause police attention everywhere. To prepare for this, Tommy unofficially gives Starfish Island the capital of Vice City only while his other friends may plan on doing the same but in other cities around this time after completing the set of missions on their own. All vehicles in six sets are to be used and taken over gradually.

Everything begins at the Washington Beach police station. This time, Tommy drives the police car to Fort Baxter Air Base and explores it for the first time. This is the source where the action is about to begin. The base contains lots of scenes where Tommy has never seen before.

After exploring the base, Tommy exits and begins shooting random workers trespassing the road through the base like the group of soldiers. He shoots with the M4 rifle and either kills the workers on the sidewalk within a few seconds or explodes vehicles in minutes. Now Tommy upgrades to the minigun to show him as a boss and begins a massacre but has done that with the last rampage. From there, he returns to the base and enters the Hunter. He flies out of the base.

Everything is downgraded to restart everything, so they can be done after fighting. Now Tommy finds out what happens when working as a police officer and starts fighting against other offices. He is given a wanted level of two and uses the shotgun as well as various upgraded guns to kill the officers quickly. Once he gets out of the station, he meets the helicopter and shoots it down with the rocket launcher. Now he is given level four and gets to the FBI Rancher to drive against the SWAT Enforcers, Cheetahs, and regular police squads until he reaches level five.

At level five, Tommy begins using the military truck for a short time and then the Rhino Tank. The Rhino Tank crashes into multiple FBI Ranchers and roadblocks, exploding all of them and killing several FBI members during the process. This continues throughout Vice City until he reaches level six, in which the military is deployed, replacing the FBI. Not only that but every place around Tommy Vercetti and the army becomes closed and reopens as the scene moves.

The scene moves into the airport around the runway, where multiple tanks ram the tank Tommy is driving. The only way to destroy the tank is flipping it. However, the scene ends up at the air base where Tommy boards the helicopter. From then on, he shoots everyone, which are mostly soldiers. Finally, the scenes move to the Washington Beach office before going to the big mansion. Last, the cops try to rub out Tommy Vercetti as it is the only way to save Vice City.
